Terms and Conditions
for Research at Campus Recreation
Events and Facilities

In consideration for research-based access to any Campus Recreation facility or event, each application that is approved for research agrees to the following:

All research conducted at Campus Recreation facilities or events must be submitted by the researcher and approval must be granted through Campus Recreation at least 2 weeks prior to research commencement.

Research access is non-transferable and may be revoked at any time at the discretion of Campus Recreation staff. Researchers agree to abide by all Campus Recreation guidelines and rules and assume all risks incidental to their performance in connection with the facilities and events. Researchers agree that Campus Recreation, its respective employees, directors, patrons, participants, and contractors shall not be liable for injuries or loss of personal property or equipment while conducting research at their facilities or events.

The use of any account, description, picture, photograph, video, audio, reproduction, or other information concerning the events other than for research about the events is prohibited, except (a) with the prior written consent of Clemson University or Campus Recreation.

To protect the privacy of our patrons:

No cameras or recording devices are allowed within Campus Recreation locker rooms or restroom facilities.

While taking photographs/videos within Fike Recreation Center, no close-up shots may be taken of patrons without their prior written consent.

No photographs/video may be taken of children under the age of 18 without written consent of the child’s parent or legal guardian.

Failure to comply with any of the terms and conditions above may result in immediate termination of research privileges and removal from the facility or event by Campus Recreation Staff.
