

Legal Resources for Immigration Matters

If needed, please find some helpful immigration resources below.

Below are attorney referral services, legal aid organizations and other immigration resources that may be able to provide attorney referrals or other immigration law information/support. Clemson does not recommend or endorse any attorneys, law firms, legal aid organizations or other legal resources included on this list. Clemson has not vetted any of these organizations, attorneys, or referrals. It is up to the student or employee to identify, investigate, evaluate, select, and pay for their own legal representation.

Attorney Referral Programs:

1. The South Carolina Bar Association has a lawyer referral service - <https://www.scbar.org/for-the-public/quicklinks/get-legal-help/>
2. The American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) has a Find an Immigration Lawyer Resource - <https://ailalawyer.com/>
3. <https://ailalawyer.com/>
4. The State Bar of Georgia has a lawyer referral service - <https://www.gabar.org/public/find-a-lawyer>
5. The North Carolina State Bar has a lawyer referral service - <https://www.ncbar.gov/for-the-public/finding-a-lawyer/>
6. South Carolina Access to Justice – Helps identify legal aid resources - <https://georgetown.neotalogic.com/a/SCATJ-Legal-Resource-Finder>

Low Income Legal Services:

7. South Carolina Legal Services – Provides free legal services and referrals to eligible low-income individuals - <https://www.lawhelp.org/SC/>
8. Catholic Charities of South Carolina – provides some low-cost immigration services - <https://charitiessc.org/immigration-legal-services>

Other Resources Where You May Be able to Find Information about Immigration Law:

9. South Carolina Appleseed Legal Justice Center may have resources regarding immigration law - <https://www.scjustice.org/resources/>
10. University of South Carolina Law Library - <https://guides.law.sc.edu/SCLegalResources>