Alpha Phi, founded by ten women who were denied admittance to men’s fraternities at Syracuse University, encompasses the values of sisterhood, innovation, generosity, and character. Alpha Phi is more than just a Greek organization, it’s a community of more than 270,000 members committed to lifelong friendships, leadership, academic excellence, personal growth, and community involvement.

We are dedicated to advancing leadership development, encouraging academic excellence, improving women’s heart health, supporting sisters in need, and educating about the value of philanthropy. Alpha Phi is proud to be a sisterhood of women supporting one another in lifelong achievement!
Heart disease is the #1 killer of women, killing more than all forms of cancer combined. Alpha Phi supports women’s heart health in many ways: donating to heart health research, writing cards to hospital patients, fundraising, raising awareness, and educating people about women’s heart health.

Designed to provide short-term financial relief for an unforeseeable circumstance, The Forget Me Not Fund offers Alpha Phis in need the greatest gift of all: the knowledge that their sisters care and are always there to help. One of Clemson Alpha Phi’s very own alumni was blessed to receive this grant after an unimaginable health diagnosis.
