

Chi Zeta Chapter of Omega Psi Phi
Fraternity
Incorporated

History

- Omega Psi Phi was found on Friday, November 17, 1911
- The Chi Zeta Chapter was chartered at Clemson University on Saturday, April 6, 1974 as the First Black Greek Lettered Organization on Clemson's campus
- The Fraternity's Four Cardinal Principals are:
 - MANHOOD
 - SCHOLARSHIP
 - PERSEVERANCE
 - UPLIFT
- Omega Psi Phi was also the creator of Black History Month.
- Nicknames: Ques, Que-Dawgs, The Bruhz

Philanthropy and Service

- Voter Registration
- Assault on Literacy
- Habitat for Humanity
- Academic excellence
- Financial assistance

Key Programs and Events

- Books and Boots
- Achievement Week
- Financial Literacy Forums
- Que-Pollo (Talent show)
- Tailgates

Requirements for Membership

- GPA: 2.7 out of 4.0 and 36 credit hours
- Classification: Must be a second-semester freshman or upper-level classification
- Range of Cost: $2,000
- Expectations: High scholastic achievement, deep dedication to betterment of self and community, high moral character and involvement in campus and community

Contact info/Social Media Pages

Alex Steedley - President

Cellphone: (803) 928-4144

Email: asteedl@g.clemson.edu

Instagram: @chizetaques