Clemson University’s nondiscrimination policy is as follows:

It is the policy of Clemson University that harassment/discrimination by employees, students or non-employees will not be tolerated. It is also the policy of Clemson University that retaliation against any person who has filed a complaint of harassment/discrimination or who has assisted or participated in any manner in the investigation and resolution of a complaint of harassment/discrimination is prohibited and subject to disciplinary action.

Clemson University's full Anti-Harassment and Anti-Discrimination Policy can be found here.

What to Do:
If you think you were discriminated against, the following are resources that can be of help:

- Title IX Coordinator: The Clemson University Title IX Coordinator is Alesia Smith who is also the Executive Director of Equity Compliance. Anyone can make a complaint about discrimination based on sex or gender or a complaint of sexual harassment including sexual violence to the Title IX Coordinator. Ms. Smith can be reached at 864-656-3181, or by email at alesias@clemson.edu.
- Office of Community and Ethical Standards: OCES is responsible for resolving student conduct issues. The Student Code of Conduct extends to incidents that occur on University property, at University-sponsored activities and off-campus. OCES can assist students with making complaints related to the Anti-Harassment and Non-Discrimination policy. The office can be reached at 864-656-0510.
- Office of Advocacy and Success: Advocacy and Success provides care and support to all CU students. Can assist students in identifying campus resources and making complaints related to the Anti-Harassment and Non-Discrimination policy. The office can be reached at 864-656-0935.
- Counseling and Psychological Services: Student victims of sexual violence can seek crisis counseling services through Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS). During normal business hours, CAPS can be contacted by calling 864-656-2451. After hours and on weekends, CAPS can be contacted by calling 864-656-2222 asking for the CAPS on-call counselor. All victims of sexual violence may seek crisis counseling services through the Pickens Rape Crisis Council at 864-442-5500.
- CUPD Victim Assistance: The Clemson University Police Department assists all campus crime victims with referrals, transportation, court familiarization and compensation. The department can be reached at 864-656-2222.
