

Dear student organization officers, Members and Advisors:

Welcome to another exciting year, and congratulations on your decision to become involved in a registered student organization. Student organizations play a vital role in making Clemson University a special place, and being involved in student organizations can enrich students' overall college experience. With over 500 student organization and clubs on campus, there are an abundant amount of opportunities for involvement, educational programming, and extra-curricular activities. To learn more about these involvement opportunities please visit TigerQuest, which is our online involvement platform.

The Student Organizations and Clubs staff in Campus Activities and Events hopes to use this site to provide your organization with all of the necessary information needed to have a successful, productive year. While we hope that you utilize this site as a resource, please know that our full time professional staff and our TigerQuest consultants are here to do continuous training and development with your student organization throughout the year. You will be able to find more information about our consultants and our educational training sessions by perusing the rest of this site.

If at any time throughout the year you have questions, concerns, or need clarification on any of the information on the site, please contact the Student Organizations and Clubs staff at tquest@clemson.edu or visit us in the 706 suite on the seventh floor of the University Union. We wish you and your student organization a fruitful school year full of life-long memories and learning.

Sincerely,

The student organizations and clubs Team
