Marketing & Communications Internship
March of Dimes

Volunteer Development Director Intern will be responsible for developing and helping to manage volunteers for the March of Dimes official event, Tigers for Babies. This event engages Clemson students, student organizations, and the entire community. Tigers for Babies helps us support the March of Dimes urgent mission, to better the health of babies by preventing premature birth, birth defects, and infant mortality.

We are seeking an outgoing, driven intern who will help us better our Tigers for Babies campaign throughout campus and the community.

Position Type: Part Time
Compensation Type: Unpaid;
Course Credit available upon approval

Responsibilities will include:
- Recruiting individuals to assist in our promotional, fundraising, and awareness efforts on campus and in the community
- Assist in managing these volunteers and delegating responsibilities to them throughout the campaign
- Collaborate with fellow interns and March of Dimes staff to achieve best results for the chapter
- Assist in recruiting 5 Assistant Directors to create a Tigers for Babies Volunteer Development Team (required)
- Help to promote fundraising events throughout the fall campaign
- Working on actual projects that affect the March of Dimes Foundation
- Contribute to building a solid foundation for this campaign's success
- Opportunity to continue to grow Tigers for Babies leadership team

 This position's responsibilities will be mostly on campus. The March of Dimes office location is in Greenville, SC. Once the official orientation has taken place, most duties will be completed on campus when a schedule is set.

Please send resumes & cover letters to Katie Peden at kpeden@marchofdimes.org.
