Dear Student:

The members of Eta Sigma Gamma, the national Health Science/ Health Education honorary, invite you to join our organization, Eta Sigma Gamma Chapter, Clemson University, as well as the national organization. The objectives of Eta Sigma Gamma are to promote and provide education, service, and research across the wide spectrum of health areas.

Eligible students must meet the following requirements in order to join:

- Be a Health Science major (all concentrations) or Languages in International Health major
- Have two or more semesters as a major in Health Science or Languages in International Health
- A GPA of 3.0 for the last two semesters

Your participation will provide you with experiences that will complement your education and foster your career goals. As you know, "real-world-experience" is increasingly important in today’s competitive job market. Here are some opportunities that your active membership will provide:

- Practical teaching experience outside the classroom
- Enhanced leadership skills
- Fostering organizational skills
- Improved social skills
- Enriched verbal and written communication skills

Eta Sigma Gamma also provides grant opportunities, scholarships and travel assistance as well as a wide network of professionals in Health Education throughout the country. We ask that you take an active role in contributing your knowledge and skills to the task of providing health promotion and health education services to those in need. The faculty sponsor of the Eta Sigma Gamma Chapter is Dr. Sarah Griffin, Associate Professor. Officers will be elected annually.

The Eta Sigma Gamma student membership fee is $50. Please make check payable to Eta Sigma Gamma. Return completed application and membership fee to Clemson University, Department of Public Health Sciences, Dr. Sarah Griffin, 507 Edwards Hall, Clemson, SC 29634. You will be notified in 3-5 weeks of your acceptance into ESG. You must be able to attend the next Initiation ceremony to be inducted. Family and friends are welcome to attend. We hope that you will join this exciting opportunity.

Sincerely,

Sarah Griffin, Ph.D.
