1999 Faculty Research Forum
College of Health, Education, and Human Development

Welcome
Dr. Harold Cheatham, Dean
College of Health, Education, and Human Development

Comments
Dr. Steven Rogers, Provost
Clayson University

Keynote Address
Dr. Linda Burton, Center for Human Development and Family Research in Diverse Contexts
The Pennsylvania State University

Dancing in the Moonlight: Integrating Ethnographic and Prevention Research

Faculty Poster Presentations

1:30-2:30

Retiree Recruitment and Retention in South Carolina: The Role of Friendship
Kenneth F. Backman, Sheila F. Backman, James F. Patrick

Improving the Elementary Education Mathematics Curriculum through TIMSS
DeWayne Brooks, Emma Owens, Sheridan Vail

A Five Year Longitudinal Study of Reading Recovery in South Carolina
Cass C. Delicie

Through the Looking Glass and into the Past: An Analysis of Twenty Years of Research on Early Literacy, Writing, and Secondary Education and the Role of Politics
Pamela J. Dunson, Kathy Neal Headley, Victoria Gentry Ridgeway

The Principal's Perspective of How the Expert Teacher Deals with Children's Behavior
Jackson L. Flanigan, Carol G. Westendorf

HIV Positive Minority Women and Their Families: A Focus Study of Recruitment and Retention Issues of a Family Intervention
Barbara Holder, Kathleen Nokes

University and School District Email Collaborative: Preservice Teachers and Eighth Graders Learn through Writing
Rebecca A. Kaminska

Recidivism Rates Among Delinquent Youth Receiving Title IV Services
Antoinette Kastrown

Workshop
2:30

218 Tillman

Crafting a Program of Research: How to Develop a Funded Research Program

Dr. Linda Burton, Center for Human Development and Family Research in Diverse Contexts
The Pennsylvania State University

2:30-4:30

Let's Begin with the Worst: Correlates of Late-Stage Diagnosis for Prostate, Breast, Cervical and Colorectal Cancers
Rachel M. Mayo, Hugh D. Spitzer

Pilot Study of Breast and Cervical Cancer in Young African-American Females
Marilyn P. Miller, Paula West-Gilstrap

Overweight Experience of the Older, Black Woman
Marilyn P. Miller

Money 2000 Program Impact Documentation
Nancy M. Parkes

Examining Outcomes of Autonomy Legislation on Nurse Practitioner Roles and Practice: Instrument Development
Rosemary H. Prado, Ann Wenzel, Denise English

Improvement of Nutritional Practices Among Low-Income, Older Women Residing in South Carolina
Cheryl Rainey, Karen Kemper, Rachel Mayo, Judith Witkofsky

Using Classwide Peer Tutoring to Enhance Peer Acceptance of Diverse Students
Pamela M. Stummer, Janie Hodge

Using Scaled Score Trackers to Increase Student and Teacher Self-Efficacy
Deborah M. Switzer, Maria V. Miller

Building Family Strengths: Research to Application—An Ethnographic Study
Brenda Thomason, Deborah Thomason

The Innovative Access Model (IAM): RN Completion Strategy for Baccalaureate Nursing Education
Sharon L. Van Soll

Black Student Perceptions of Predominantly White University of Massachusetts-Amherst and its Relationship to the CCEBMS Program
Susan S. Warner

Project "HAIL": Health and Intergenerational Leadership
Judith S. Witkofsky

2:30-3:00

Let's Begin with the Worst: Correlates of Late-Stage Diagnosis for Prostate, Breast, Cervical and Colorectal Cancers
Rachel M. Mayo, Hugh D. Spitzer

Pilot Study of Breast and Cervical Cancer in Young African-American Females
Marilyn P. Miller, Paula West-Gilstrap

Overweight Experience of the Older, Black Woman
Marilyn P. Miller

Money 2000 Program Impact Documentation
Nancy M. Parkes

Examining Outcomes of Autonomy Legislation on Nurse Practitioner Roles and Practice: Instrument Development
Rosemary H. Prado, Ann Wenzel, Denise English

Improvement of Nutritional Practices Among Low-Income, Older Women Residing in South Carolina
Cheryl Rainey, Karen Kemper, Rachel Mayo, Judith Witkofsky

Using Classwide Peer Tutoring to Enhance Peer Acceptance of Diverse Students
Pamela M. Stummer, Janie Hodge

Using Scaled Score Trackers to Increase Student and Teacher Self-Efficacy
Deborah M. Switzer, Maria V. Miller

Building Family Strengths: Research to Application—An Ethnographic Study
Brenda Thomason, Deborah Thomason

The Innovative Access Model (IAM): RN Completion Strategy for Baccalaureate Nursing Education
Sharon L. Van Soll

Black Student Perceptions of Predominantly White University of Massachusetts-Amherst and its Relationship to the CCEBMS Program
Susan S. Warner

Project "HAIL": Health and Intergenerational Leadership
Judith S. Witkofsky

2:30-3:00

Let's Begin with the Worst: Correlates of Late-Stage Diagnosis for Prostate, Breast, Cervical and Colorectal Cancers
Rachel M. Mayo, Hugh D. Spitzer

Pilot Study of Breast and Cervical Cancer in Young African-American Females
Marilyn P. Miller, Paula West-Gilstrap

Overweight Experience of the Older, Black Woman
Marilyn P. Miller

Money 2000 Program Impact Documentation
Nancy M. Parkes

Examining Outcomes of Autonomy Legislation on Nurse Practitioner Roles and Practice: Instrument Development
Rosemary H. Prado, Ann Wenzel, Denise English

Improvement of Nutritional Practices Among Low-Income, Older Women Residing in South Carolina
Cheryl Rainey, Karen Kemper, Rachel Mayo, Judith Witkofsky

Using Classwide Peer Tutoring to Enhance Peer Acceptance of Diverse Students
Pamela M. Stummer, Janie Hodge

Using Scaled Score Trackers to Increase Student and Teacher Self-Efficacy
Deborah M. Switzer, Maria V. Miller

Building Family Strengths: Research to Application—An Ethnographic Study
Brenda Thomason, Deborah Thomason

The Innovative Access Model (IAM): RN Completion Strategy for Baccalaureate Nursing Education
Sharon L. Van Soll

Black Student Perceptions of Predominantly White University of Massachusetts-Amherst and its Relationship to the CCEBMS Program
Susan S. Warner

Project "HAIL": Health and Intergenerational Leadership
Judith S. Witkofsky