

2016 DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI AWARD

John C. Atz is President and CEO of Kimley-Horn. Mr. Atz joined the firm in 1987 as an engineer analyst. He progressed through various practice and leadership ranks of the firm and assumed the role of President in 2009. His professional affiliations include the American Society of Civil Engineers, Florida Engineering Society and the Florida Engineering Foundation where he currently serves as a trustee. Mr. Atz earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in civil engineering from Clemson University where he currently serves on the Glenn Department of Civil Engineering Advisory Board. Mr. Atz lives in Tequesta, Florida. He and his wife, Lisa have three sons.

As President of Kimley-Horn, Mr. Atz is at the helm of one of the nation's leading engineering design firms. With more than 2,500 staff in 80 offices nationwide, Kimley-Horn offers full services in a wide range of disciplines: aviation, environmental planning, intelligent transportation systems, forensics, landscape architecture, land planning, transit, transportation, structures, urban redevelopment, water resources, and wireless communications. Kimley-Horn also is consistently ranked by ENR as a top design firm and by Fortune as a 100 Best Places to Work.