

MARGARET LOUISE THOMPSON, ESQ.

P. O. Box 498

Pendleton, SC 29670 - 0498

864. 646.7954

LEGAL EDUCATION The University of Michigan Law School, Ann Arbor, Michigan
J.D. Degree, May 1984

ADMITTED New York Bar, 1985

UNDERGRADUATE EDUCATION Radcliffe College (Harvard University), Cambridge, Massachusetts
A.B. cum laude - June 1967. Field of Concentration: Classics

GRADUATE EDUCATION The University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan
Department of Classical Studies, 1967-1972
C. Phil. (A.B.D.) September 1970

HONORS National Merit Scholarship; Radcliffe College Scholarship
Rackham Prize Fellowship (University of Michigan)

EMPLOYMENT Clemson University, Clemson, South Carolina, at present: Dep't of Environmental Engineering and Earth Sciences, Lecturer, Environmental Science, Law & Policy, 1999 - ; Strom Thurmond Institute, Associate, 1998 -2014; College of Arts, Architecture & Humanities, Lecturer, Latin 101, Latin 102, 201, 202, 2005 -2008; College of Commerce and Industry, School of Accountancy and Legal Studies, Lecturer, Commercial Law and related courses, 1991- 1998; University of South Carolina, Columbia, South Carolina, School of Law, Adjunct Professor, Environmental Law, Spring Semesters, 1992-1995; Clemson Special Programs, Summer Lecturer, "The Law and You," Clemson Career Workshop, 1992-1995

Law Practice Rosenman & Colin (Law Firm), New York City, 1988-1989, Environmental Law Associate. New York City practice: compliance counseling, environmental statutes and regulations, federal, state, and local law; transactional work (counseling purchasers, lenders, and corporations on liability issues; environmental due diligence audits.) Legal expertise: federal hazardous substances/hazardous waste (CERCLA, RCRA, and TSCA) issues, with an emphasis on CERCLA in its entirety, RCRA regulation of underground storage tanks, and TSCA PCB issues; permitting questions arising under major federal statutes, e.g., the Clean Air Act, and regulations thereunder; laws regulating asbestos; and New York SEQRA and Inactive Hazardous Waste Site Law issues, with some experience with New Jersey's ECRA law.

MARGARET LOUISE THOMPSON

Page two

LEGAL EMPLOYMENT

At the large law firm Rosenman & Colin, 1988 - 1989, as Environmental Law specialist, I served as counseling attorney to partners of the firm in the Real Estate, Corporate, and Litigation departments

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, New York City, 1984-1988, Staff Attorney, Office of Regional Counsel, Region II, Superfund Branch (New Jersey). My EPA assignments involved the enforcement of statutes regulating hazardous waste and toxic substances (CERCLA, RCRA, TSCA), in administrative compliance and litigation matters

CLERKSHIPS

Law Clerk to the Honorable Patrick J. Conlin for the Circuit Court of Michigan, County of Washtenaw, Ann Arbor, Michigan, 1982-1984
As upper tier of a two-tiered trial court system, the Circuit Court has jurisdiction over original matters, both civil and criminal, and also hears appeals from matters originally brought in the District Court (the lower tier) and in State administrative agencies.

Summer Law Clerk, Josephson, Fink, Darnton & Jordan, Ann Arbor, Michigan, 1982

OTHER EMPLOYMENT

Clemson Montessori School, Upper Elementary Latin I and Latin II, 2006 - 2013; U.S. Census Bureau, Charlotte, NC Regional Office, Field Representative, Monthly Current Population Survey for the Bureau of Labor Statistics, 2005 – 2007; U.S. Census Bureau, Anderson, SC Field Office, Census 2000, Enumerator; Census 2010, Address Canvasser, Field Office Tasks in preparation for Census 2010.

ACADEMIC EMPLOYMENT

Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana
Department of Classical Studies/Visiting Lecturer, 1975-1976; courses taught included large lecture courses on the history of ancient Greek culture, Bronze Age to Plato's Athens, and Medical Terminology (Greek and Latin elements); also small seminars on works of individual Greek and Latin authors

The University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida
Department of Classical Studies/Interim Assistant Professor, 1972-1973; courses taught included lecture courses on Greek Mythology, Greek Tragic Drama, and Greek Epic Poetry; also small seminars on works of individual Greek and Latin authors

The University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan
Department of Classical Studies/Teaching Fellow, 1971-1972; advanced Latin grammar, and literature of classical Latin poets

MARGARET LOUISE THOMPSON

Page three

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS Member, New York Academy of Sciences, 1997 - 2000
Member, American Museum of Natural History to 2000
Member, The Association of the Bar of the City of New York
Committee on Environmental Law (1988 – 1989)
Member, (retired from practice), New York Bar formerly a member of the American Philological Association

OTHER EMPLOYMENT [PUBLISHING] The Health Administration Press, School of Public Health, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor; Copy Editor, 1979-1980; I handled some legal editing for The Southwestern Legal Foundation, Richardson, Texas; by correspondence from Ann Arbor I did legal research, legal editing, and manuscript preparation, 1978-1979; edited transcripts of lecture courses for a continuing legal education program, checked legal references for accuracy of citations and of substance, supplied missing citations

Huron Valley Graphics, Ann Arbor; Proofreader, 1978; one of the first computer typesetters in the U.S., Huron Valley Graphics clients included major university presses such as Harvard, Oxford, and Cambridge

The Institute of Continuing Legal Education, University of Michigan Law School, Ann Arbor, Michigan; Proofreader and Editorial Assistant, 1976-1978 and 1974-1975; work included copy editing, substance editing, and legal research, for books including collections of articles by various authors (practicing attorneys and law professors) and a multi-volume practice manual for Michigan attorneys handling state and federal criminal cases.

REFERENCES Available upon Request