

PROCEEDINGS OF LPM2026*TRANSFER OF COPYRIGHT TO JAPAN LASER PROCESSING SOCIETY (JLPS)*Title of Paper (Type/Print):*Submitting author: _____ Initial Abstract No.: _____

This signed statement must be returned to Japan Laser Processing Society (JLPS) prior to the scheduled publication of the Proceedings or Journal in which the Paper will be published. The intent of this Agreement is to protect the interests of both JLPS and authors/employers and to specify reasonable rights for both parties related to publication and reuse of the material. Online Proceedings which contain your paper including your name, affiliation, country (and e-mail address if you prefer) will be distributed to the LPM2026 attendees after the conference.

The undersigned hereby assign(s) to Japan Laser Processing Society (JLPS) copyright ownership in the above-titled Paper, effective if and when the Paper is accepted for publication in Proceedings of LPM2026 and to the extent transferable under applicable national law. This assignment gives JLPS the right to register copyright to the Paper in its name as claimant and to publish the Paper in any print or electronic medium.

Authors, or their employers in the case of works made for hire, retain the following rights:

- (1) All proprietary rights other than copyright, including patent rights.
- (2) The right to make and distribute copies of the Paper for internal purposes.
- (3) The right to post a preprint or reprint of the Paper on an internal or external server controlled exclusively by the author/ employer, provided that (a) such posting is noncommercial in nature and the Paper is made available to users without a fee or charge; and (b) the following statement appears on the first page, or screen, of the Paper as posted on the server:

*Copyright *** (year) Japan Laser Processing Society.*

This paper was (will be) published in [add journal or proceedings bibliographic information] and is made available as an electronic reprint (preprint) with permission of JLPS. One print or electronic copy may be made for personal use only. Systematic or multiple reproduction, distribution to multiple locations via electronic or other means, duplication of any material in this paper for a fee or for commercial purposes, or modification of the content of the paper are prohibited.

- (4) The right, after publication by JLPS, to use all or part of the Article without revision or modification, including the JLPS-formatted version, in personal compilations or other publications of the author's own works, including the author's personal web home page, and to make copies of all or part of the Article for the author's use for lecture or class room purposes.
- (5) The right to post and update the Article on e-print servers as long as files prepared and/or formatted by JLPS or its vendors are not used for that purpose. Any such posting made or updated after acceptance of the Article for publication shall include a link to the online abstract in the journal or to the entry page of the journal.
- (6) The right to prepare derivative publications based on the Paper, including books or book chapters, journal papers, and magazine articles, provided that publication of a derivative work occurs subsequent to the official date of publication of the JLPS publication in which the Paper appears.
- (7) If the work that forms the basis of this Paper was done under a contract with a governmental agency or other entity that retains certain rights, this Transfer of Copyright is subject to any rights that such governmental agency or other entity may have acquired.

JLPS copyright policy permits authors to submit their proceedings papers to JLMN. Submissions to JLMN are permissible provided the other expectations described herein are satisfied. Authors submitting to journals published by other publishers should verify that publisher's copyright and submission policies. Authors wishing to submit papers that were presented at or published in symposium proceedings sponsored by organizations other than JLPS are responsible for adhering to the copyright policies related to that presentation or publication and are expected to disclose the prior presentation or publication history of the submission.

By signing this Agreement, the authors warrant that (1) the Paper is original and has not previously been published elsewhere; (2) this work does not infringe on any copyright or other rights in any other work; (3) all necessary reproduction permissions, licenses, and clearances have been obtained; and (4) the authors own the copyright in the Paper, are authorized to transfer it, and have full power to enter into this Agreement with JLPS.

WHO SHOULD SIGN. This form must be signed by (1) at least one author and (2) the author's employer if the paper was prepared within the scope of the author's employment or was commissioned by the employer. If not signed by all authors, the author(s) signing this agreement represents that he/she is signing this agreement as authorized agent for and on behalf of all the authors.
