A MATTER OF BALANCE

MANAGING CONCERNS ABOUT FALLS

Older, rural South Carolinians have some of the highest rates of falls in the nation. A MATTER OF BALANCE is an award-winning program designed to reduce the fear of falling and increase activity levels.

Become a Master Trainer! Clemson University is launching a fall prevention initiative in upstate SC and providing training to community members interested in helping older adults prevent falls. Contact the team at balance@clemson.edu to learn more about this initiative and how you can help.

What's in it for you?

Coaches and Trainers have reported feeling better to a lot better in the following areas as a result of their involvement with a Matter of Balance*:

- Sense of accomplishment
- Purpose in life
- Can make a positive difference in another person's life
- Feelings about their health
- Confidence in managing falls themselves

What makes a great Master Trainer?

We are interviewing individuals who have:

- Good communication/interpersonal skills
- Enthusiasm
- Dependability
- Willingness to lead a small group (this includes leading workshops as well as training/mentoring other coaches)
- Interest in working with older adults
- Life experience – education/healthcare experience is a plus!
- Ability to perform range of motion and low-level endurance exercises
- Ability to carry up to 20 lbs
