Weyerhaeuser Sustainable Building Seminars

Tuesdays, 12:30 pm - 1:00 pm
1 credit class, Junior or Senior level seminar

Seminars will be held in the Watt Auditorium. Those marked with * will be held in the Hendrix Center McKissick Theater. To join online: https://bit.ly/47Vqudk

Aug. 29: Built Environment and Climate Change Solutions, WU+D Faculty Fellows

Sept. 5: The Weyerhaeuser Carbon Story, Vaughn Andrews & Sarah Fulcher, Weyerhaeuser

Sept 12: Life Cycle Analysis/Embodied Carbon, Indroneil Ganguly, University of Washington

Sept 19: Ethical Considerations for Sustainable Buildings, Bill McCoy, Clemson University

Sept 26: Weyerhaeuser Forest Operations, Katie Jordan, Kelly Dougherty, Jon Welch, Weyerhaeuser

Oct 3: Timber to the Extreme: The Intersection of Resiliency and Sustainability in the Performance of Timber Structures under Extreme Hazards, David Roueche, Auburn University

Oct 10: MEP Insights to the IECC and Title 24 Energy Codes – What the Future Holds, Justin Judy, Engineering System Solutions

*Oct 24: Design for Reuse with Mass Timber, Tom Frantzen, Lemniskade projects and FRANTZEN et al.

Nov 7: Modern Mass Timber in the Market, Dean Lewis, Skanska USA

*Nov 14: Designing for Sustainability and Climate Action with AIA Resources, Betsy del Monte, Cameron MacAllister

Nov 21: Seedlings to Solutions: 619 Ponce, Georgia’s First Locally Grown Mass Timber Building, Troy Harris, Jamestown, L.P.

Nov 28: Landscape Sustainability Practices, Darren Meyer & Joe Chambers, MKSK

Dec 5: How Mass Timber Works for Building Owner/Occupants, panel discussion

Participation from the professional community is welcome! Clemson University is applying for AIA CEU credits for each of the lectures in the seminar series.