

Advising Form

Honors students are expected to set their sights on meeting the requirements of our two academic programs, General Honors and Departmental Honors.

General Honors

Most of the courses you will take for General Honors will be taken to satisfy the university's General Education requirements in areas such as mathematics, science, humanities, and social science. The purpose of General Honors is to broaden your intellectual perspectives. To this end, you are encouraged to take Honors courses in as many different areas as possible. To be awarded the Certificate of Achievement in General Honors, the following requirements must be satisfied:

- 1) Completion of a minimum of 18 credit hours in honors courses, distributed as follows:
 - a. At least one course (>3 credit) from three or more groups (see below);
 - b. At least one course in three or more subjects (e.g., ENGL, MTHS).
- 2) A cumulative GPR of 3.40 or higher on all coursework taken at Clemson (non-honors as well as honors courses).
- 3) A grade of A or B in all courses taken to fulfill the requirements of General Honors.
- 4) Completion of all University requirements for graduation.

Group A: Composition and Communication

Departmental Honors

The purpose of Departmental Honors is to provide Honors students a unique opportunity to do advanced, in-depth study and research within their major. Specific requirements are set by the student's department and are detailed in the on-line Honors Student Handbook. Normally, Departmental Honors is undertaken in your junior and senior years.
