EUREKA! Outdoor Adventure Trip
Sunday, July 1st – Monday, July 2nd

Pick-up: 9 am (7/1) Douthit Hills D Building
Drop off: 7 pm (7/2) Douthit Hills D Building

Join Clemson Outdoor Recreation and Education (CORE) as we travel to the Nantahala River for camping, hiking and whitewater rafting! The Nantahala George in Western North Carolina is a mecca for outdoor adventure activities. We will spend 2 days and 1 night exploring this amazing area while building friendships that will last throughout your Clemson experience! We will provide all of the outdoor equipment you will need for the weekend, with the exception of your personal clothing and belongings (see suggested packing list below). Lodging will be in a group lodge/bunk house.
Transportation and meals during the trip (lunch and dinner Sunday, breakfast and lunch Monday, and some snacks) will be included in the trip.

Suggested packing list:
- long pants (i.e. hiking pants, sweatpants)
- shorts
- long sleeve shirt
- short sleeve shirt
- sweatshirt/jacket layers
- hat/headband (for warmth & sun)
- socks
- shoes (i.e. tennis shoes, chacos)
- games (i.e. cards, football, frisbee)
- things for down time (i.e. book, journal, camera)
- sunglasses
- toiletries & hygiene products
- bug spray
- swimsuit/comfortable water clothes
- towel
- river shoes (i.e. chacos, sandals with straps)
- sunscreen
- change of clothes for after rafting/drive back
- twin bedding (i.e. sheets or sleeping bag, pillow)*

CORE will provide all participants with sleeping bags, sleeping pads, cooking equipment, and rafting equipment. If you have your own gear and wish to bring it, just be sure to let your trip leaders know prior to the trip

Clemson Outdoor Recreation and Education outside@clemson.edu • (864) 656-0892 • www.clemson.edu/core