

HONORS ADVISING – FALL 2020

All Honors Advising will be virtual for the fall 2020 semester. While we will not be available to meet with students in-person during this time, the Honors advising staff is accessible and here to support you!

Below you will find more information on how to reach an Honors Advisor depending on the level of support you need and how quickly you need to meet with an advisor.

Are you in an emergency situation?

If you find yourself in an emergency situation in which you need immediate help and support that cannot wait, we encourage you to reach out to CUPD (Clemson University Police Department) at 864-656-2222 or call 911.

Are your Honors Advising needs non-urgent?

If you need Honors Advising support that is not urgent and can wait a few days or even the following week, please schedule an Honors advising meeting with your Honors Advisor via CU Navigate. Below are instructions on how to schedule an Honors Advising meeting.

Examples of a non-urgent advising need could include wanting your advisor to check on your progress towards an Honors distinction or discussing possible Honors course options for a future semester.

Log in to CU Navigate: <https://clemsontech.com/campus/eab/> using your Clemson user ID and password (same one for iROAR)

Select “Academic Advising” for the type of appointment you’d like

Select “Honors Advising Virtual” as the service category then click “Next”

Select “Honors College Advising Center” as the Location

Select your assigned Honors Advisor and then find a time on the calendar where there is not a conflict

Are your Honors Advising needs urgent?

If your need for Honors Advising support is more urgent (e.g.- you need to talk with your Honors Advisor within the next 24-48 hours), there are a few ways you can reach an Honors Advisor more quickly.

Examples of an urgent advising need could include needing advising support in order to make a decision that has a looming deadline or a personal or academic concern that you need to discuss immediately.

- 1) You can email your Honors Advisor directly or email honorsadvising@clermson.edu and specify in your email that you need urgent advising support. Keep in mind that Honors Advisors do not work weekends or university holidays and will not be able to respond to requests over the weekend. In those cases, you will not receive a response until the work week begins.
- 2) If during normal business hours (Monday thru Friday, 8am-4:30pm), you can call the Honors College's main phone line at 864-656-4762 and the staff member answering the phone can transfer your call to the Honors Advisor that is on-call during that time. If the advisor is unable to answer, please leave a message and they will make every effort to call you back by the end of the day. Please specify if your need is urgent.
- 3) If outside of normal business hours or on the weekend, we encourage you to email your Honors Advisor or honorsadvising@clermson.edu and an advisor will be in touch with you once they return to work the following day (or on Monday if you email an advisor over the weekend). Once again, please specify if your need is urgent.
- 4) If you come into the Honors College office during open office hours, you can also leave a message with the staff member at the front desk who can then relay the message to an Honors Advisor. An Honors Advisor will make every effort to reach out to you by the end of the day.

Do you need support from Counseling and Psychological Services?

If you need support from Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) after hours, you can reach a CAPS on-call counselor by calling CUPD at 864-656-2222. During normal business hours, you can reach CAPS at 864-656-2451.

Looking for peer support?

Our Honors Wellness Ambassadors have weekly, virtual one-on-one drop-in appointments! Explore dimensions of wellness, areas of concern, or other topics. Sign up for a virtual appointment through Calendly.