Visual Arts Bachelor of Fine Arts

The Bachelor of Fine Arts degree is the recognized professional undergraduate degree in the visual arts. The program offers students a balanced curriculum of academic coursework, studio art and art history courses in preparation for careers in studio related areas of the visual arts. The department offers coursework in a number of studio disciplines, including ceramics, drawing, painting, printmaking, photography, sculpture and the new media arts.

First-year art students participate in a foundations program comprised of four studio classes. These classes expose first-year art students to 2-D, 3-D, and 4-D studio practices; utilize traditional and new media; and place special emphasis on drawing. Near the end of the freshmen year, students exhibit their work in a mandatory Foundations Review.

In the sophomore year, students take studio courses in six disciplines, which provides an overview of the studio arts and exposes students to a broad range of studio experiences. Upon completion of this core of courses, students identify one studio discipline as their emphasis area in the Bachelor of Fine Arts program.

In the junior year, students fulfill requirements in their emphasis area in preparation for the Senior Studio experience. Requirements include intermediate and advanced courses in their chosen studio discipline.

The Senior Studio experience is comprised of three courses and provides students an opportunity to focus on and refine their personal art concepts and skills, produce a cohesive body of artworks for their BFA exhibition, and develop their portfolio for graduate study or a career in studio-related art professions.

Women's Leadership Bachelor of Arts

The Bachelor of Arts in Women’s Leadership combines the interdisciplinary study of women’s experience and representation with an emphasis on the key principles and practice of leadership. Students learn to ask critical questions about women’s lives in social, economic, political, and familial contexts, and to see connections in women’s lives across diverse cultures. This interdisciplinary curriculum combines coursework in women’s studies and leadership studies and is supplemented by a semester-long internship that provides students with practical work experience and opportunities to test leadership skills and strategies.

The major provides a solid foundation for students interested in advanced degrees in the humanities or social sciences, and for students pursuing careers in law, business, government, non-profit organizations, and work related to improving the lives of women locally, nationally, and internationally. Students develop strong oral and written communication skills, gain exposure to different leadership styles and paths to leadership, and learn the competitive skills they need to lead ethically in a rapidly changing global environment. The program is designed to work well as a doublemajor for students in the humanities, social sciences, and business fields.

The major consists of 33 credits and the program of study includes the courses stipulated in the curriculum map below. All students take a 12-credit core of required courses (Group I), which consists of an introductory women’s studies course (WS 1030 or 3010); a women and leadership course (WS 2300); a theories and methods course (WS 3490, 4230, 4360, or 4900); and a capstone senior seminar (WS 4010). In addition to this core, students select six credit hours from courses that focus entirely on women or gender (Group II); six credit hours from courses that... involve a substantial focus on women and gender issues (Group III); and six credit hours from approved leadership courses (Group IV). In addition, students complete a three-credit internship.
