

Online M.Ed. in Literacy

College of EDUCATION

Clemson University's College of Education has produced award-winning teachers and leaders since its first teacher education classes offered in 1916. Now, our exceptional quality can be shared nationally through our online Master of Education in Literacy. Embedded within a top 30 public university and designed for working professionals like you, the Clemson M.Ed. offers flexibility, specialized skills and practical knowledge to help you take the next step in your career.

What is the M.Ed. in Literacy?

The Clemson M.Ed. Literacy program is a 100% online graduate program for K-12 educators. The engaging curriculum will prepare you to advance your professional standing as you earn certifications in Literacy Teacher, and either ESOL or Literacy Coach.

How do M.Ed. students learn?

Students engage in a rigorous curriculum and state-of-the-art online learning. They complete 30 hours of coursework in one focus strand: Literacy Coaching with certification in Literacy Teacher and Literacy Coach or Literacy ESOL with certification in Literacy Teacher and ESOL.

What do M.Ed. graduates gain?

Graduates gain the acquisition of in-depth knowledge about literacy research and instruction that transforms their teaching and their students' literacy development. Graduates also become literacy leaders who are able to support their colleagues in developing effective instructional practices, particularly with learners who are at risk.
