South Carolina 4-H
2019 State Presentations Contest

General Rules
1) Do your Illustrated Talk, Demonstration, or Speech on a topic that fits in one of your favorite 4-H project areas:
   • Agriculture and Natural Resources
   • Healthy Lifestyles
   • Leadership, Citizenship, and Personal Development
   • Livestock
   • Science
   • Horse
2) You can do your presentation by yourself or you can ask one friend who is a member of 4-H and is in your same age group to present with you.
3) The following equipment will be provided for you:
   • table
   • easel
   • screen
   • laptop*
   • projector*
4) You must furnish all other supplies.
5) Tell your adults that they can help you set up and clean up, but they can’t help you during your presentation.
6) Judges are the only ones who are allowed to ask questions.
7) No live animals!
8) All presentations must be your original work and a new presentation must be prepared each year.
9) You can use notes and outlines to help you remember what to say but points will be taken away if you read your presentation.
10) You don’t have to attend the whole Junior or Senior Weekend (but we want you to). You can register for only the contest if that’s what you want to do.
11) Cloverbuds (ages 5-8 years old) do not compete in the state contest.
12) Should you require special accommodations due to a disability or religious affiliation, please notify our office ten days prior to the event.
13) Each region can submit 2 registrations per project area.
14) Be sure to get your registration in on time! There will be a $15 non-refundable late fee for registrations sent in after the deadline.

A note about equipment: Check ahead of time to make sure all equipment, discs, sticks, and whatever technology you bring works and is compatible with equipment provided. Be sure to have a back-up plan if things don’t work together. It is your responsibility to make sure your presentation is the . . . . . .

2019 SC 4-H Presentations Contest

4-H Presentations Contests allow members the opportunity to develop communication and leadership skills. Participating youth have the opportunity to teach others by developing and delivering a "show and tell" presentation related to skills learned in 4-H.

The Junior Contest is being held in conjunction with 4-H Junior Weekend at Camp Bob Cooper: 9am February 9, 2019. Juniors are 9 - 13 years old as of January 1, 2019.

The Senior Contest is being held in conjunction with 4-H Senior Teen Weekend at Camp Bob Cooper: 9am, March 2, 2019. Seniors are 14 – 19 years old as of January 1, 2019.

Youth are encouraged to register for and attend the entire event Weekends but can register for and attend the contest only.

The registration deadline is the same date as the Junior or Teen Weekend registration date. There will be a $15 non-refundable late fee for entries past this date.

4-H is the youth development program of the Cooperative Extension Service, a nationwide partnership of federal, state and county governments, and the private sector. The Clemson University Cooperative Extension service offers its programs to people of all ages, regardless of race, color, sex, religion, national origin, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, marital or family status and is an equal opportunity employer.
