What Youth Will Learn

Shooting Sports
All individuals will participate in a hunter safety course. Individuals will be supervised by certified 4-H instructors and hunter education department of natural resources officers with shotgun, rifles, archery at a variety of ranges.

Natural Resource and Wildlife
You will have the opportunity to learn about biodiversity, habitat composition, communities, cultural perspectives, economic considerations, adaptations, environmental change, populations, issue investigation, management and responsible action from some of the best instructors in the State.

4-H Fun
In addition to all the wildlife and natural resources activities, participants will have an opportunity to explore the many facets of 4-H.

Individuals will also develop a presentation on a concept they learned during the week to share with parents and supporters at the end of the week.

As with all 4-H programs, activities will include hands-on learning that teaches leadership, citizenship and life skills under the supervision of caring adults.

Other Activities
Canoeing, fishing, volleyball, night hikes (spotlight surveys for deer), small mammal trapping, camp fires, tackle crafting, bird calling, dissecting, and much, much, more!!

Fees For The Week
The total cost of camp for registered South Carolina 4-H’ers is $375 per participant. Fees include all activities, lodging, meals, instruction and supervision. Please make checks payable to Hampton County Extension Office. Non-South Carolina 4-H’ers must pay the $10 South Carolina 4-H membership fee along with the camp registration fee.

Required paperwork
Upon receipt of your registration, the applicant will receive a permission form, health form, medical statement, discipline policy, a map to the site, and a list of things to bring to camp. ALL paperwork must be on file for campers to participate. You will not be able to attend 4-H Wild at Webb Camp without these forms.

Deadline
Registration for 4-H Wild at Webb Camp closes two (2) weeks prior to camp or when capacity is reached. If capacity is reached, a waiting list will be started.

Health Form
A Health Form and physical is required of each camper attending 4-H Wild at Webb Week.

Refunds
Refunds will be issued when request is written at least two weeks prior to the start of the camp session. No refunds will be issued within two (2) weeks of camp, nor after camp session has begun.
