August 5-7, 2022

T. Ed Garrison Livestock Arena
Clemson, SC
Welcome

Welcome to the 35th South Carolina Jr. Beef Round-Up. We’re looking forward to seeing all of our old friends and making some new ones this year. Round-Up is a weekend full of food, fun, and fellowship - with a beef show on the side! This Handbook should answer most of your questions about the weekend events. Please read it carefully and all the way through. Your 4-H agent, FFA advisor, or breed association representative can provide additional information and assist you in registering.

Regular registration and entry fee of $20 per head are due by July 16th. Late registration and late entry fee of $40 per head will be charged from July 17th – July 30th. No entries will be accepted after July 30th.

Visit the SC Jr. Beef Round-Up website or Facebook for registration, FAQs, sponsor information, and the most up-to-date information about weekend events!

At the current time, we have not secured sponsorship for our Commercial, AOB, Steers and Zebu shows. We are working with potential donors for these shows as well as an AOB (all other registered cattle.) Breed shows are $300. If you have an interest in contributing to these or have an interest in sponsoring additional breed shows, please contact us.

General Rules and Information

Please read all rules and regulations carefully!

1. South Carolina Jr. Beef Round-Up is open to all young people with an interest in beef cattle and the beef industry.
2. Stall space will be provided only for those animals entered in SC Jr. Beef Round-Up.
3. ALL Jr. Beef Round-Up breed show exhibitors must compete in the Jr. Cattlemen’s Contest and Showmanship Contest. If you do not participate in the Jr. Cattlemen’s Contest, you are NOT eligible to participate in the Showmanship Contest or the Breed Shows. All attendees are welcome to participate in the contest as well.
4. Cattle must be in place by 9:00 am on Saturday of the event.
5. ALL REGISTERED CATTLE WILL BE CHECKED FOR TATTOOS.
6. If there is not a sponsor for a breed show, heifers will be moved to AOB.
7. Most exhibitors will not need to bring a grooming chute. However, if a grooming chute is needed, they will NOT be permitted in the barns or in the Cattle Complex Sales Ring.
8. Cattle arrive throughout Friday and Saturday, and we need to ensure there are spaces available for those arriving later. Please utilize only the space you need for your cattle and a SMALL spot for your equipment.
9. Please keep aisles clear and free from equipment! NO butt fans allowed, they create hazards in the aisles, and this is a safety issue!
10. Due to electrical conditions, exhibitors with electrical needs are asked to provide their own generators.
11. Designated breed representatives are in charge of their respective exhibitors and breed shows.
12. All exhibitors, families and friends are invited to attend the Sunday morning worship service.
13. The cattle barns will be bedded with a base amount of wood shavings. You may bring extra shavings for bedding your animals, if you wish. NO STRAW is allowed for bedding in the barn.
14. Designated tie-out areas are available. Please do not tie-out in wash racks or other outside areas that are not designated for such. Straw will be permitted in the tie-out spaces. Do not tie-out in undesigned areas (wash racks, other railings).
15. Please do not throw trash in the manure pits!
16. A sponsored awards banquet will be provided for all exhibitors and their families on Saturday evening. All other meal expenses are on your own.
17. A concession stand serving drinks, snacks and meals will be available in the Main Arena on Saturday and Sunday.
18. Exhibitors and cattle are released to leave after the conclusion of their breed show on Sunday.
20. Neither the South Carolina Jr. Beef Round-Up Committee, Clemson University nor T. Ed Garrison Arena will be responsible for theft, injuries or damages to persons, animals or equipment while attending this event.
South Carolina Health Requirements

★ All cattle must conform to South Carolina state health requirements.
★ South Carolina is a Brucellosis- and Tuberculosis-free state.

IN-STATE CATTLE
1. South Carolina cattle – health certificates (Certificate of Veterinary Inspection) and testing - NOT required.

OUT-OF-STATE CATTLE
Changes in Federal Traceability Rules, Please Read Carefully
1. All cattle must have an official state health certificate (Certificate of Veterinary Inspection) within 30 days of the event/show and it must accompany the cattle on arrival.
   a. The Official individual ID must be recorded on the CVI.
   b. The CVI must include a specific destination which is: Garrison Arena, 1101 W. Queen St, Pendleton, SC 29670.
2. Brucellosis and Tuberculosis testing
   a. Brucellosis and Tuberculosis testing not required for cattle from Brucellosis- free and Tuberculosis-free states.
   b. Brucellosis and Tuberculosis test required for all cattle not from free states: negative test within 60 days for Tuberculosis and 30 days for Brucellosis.
3. All cattle must be individually identified with an official ear tag.
   a. South Carolina does not accept tattoos or brands as official ID under the traceability rule for cattle entering South Carolina.
   b. Official ear tags:
      • Imprinted with Official Ear Tag Shield and Official ID Number
      • AIN – 15 digit “840” tags (most will be EIDs – electronic) (Manufacturer codes e.g. “982” and “USA” tags grandfathered if applied prior to 3/11/15)
      • National Uniform Ear Tagging Series (NUES) e.g. 56ABC1234
      • Approved devices listed on traceability website
4. For additional information, please contact Clemson Livestock-Poultry Health at 803-788-2260.
5. Out-of-State exhibitors MUST present official state health certificates (CVI) listing all of their entries to the main show office at check-in.
6. If an animal has no CURRENT CVI or APPROVED ID that animal will not be permitted to remain on the show grounds.
The SC Junior Beef Round-Up is proud to offer numerous scholarships to our youth who pursue a post-secondary education. We would like to thank all of our sponsors for supporting these scholarships.

General Scholarship Contest Rules

1. All youth competing for ANY scholarship MUST sign-in at the show office PRIOR to the beginning of the ESSAY portion of the scholarship contest to be eligible for ANY scholarship.
2. Contestants need to indicate during the registration process their intent to compete for scholarships.
4. Eligible youth may be awarded multiple scholarships and remain eligible until they have met or exceeded $2500 in total awards.
5. At a future date, scholarship winners must pursue a 2- or 4-year degree program.
6. You must be a high school student in grades 10, 11, or 12 or a full-time college student in the Fall of 2021.
7. You must participate in all 3 parts of the Scholarship Contest, which uses the following scoring system:
   a. Written essay score – 40%
   b. Jr. Cattlemen’s Contest score – 40%
   c. Showmanship placing score – 20%
      i. Showmanship points will be calculated as follows: 1st place = 20 pts, 2nd place = 19 pts, etc. until 10th place = 11 pts, etc.
8. In the event of a tie, the following scores will be used in the order listed to determine the final ranking:
   a. Jr. Cattlemen’s Contest score
   b. Written Essay score
   c. Showmanship placing score
9. The money will be awarded to winners when they begin their college careers and will be paid directly to the institution to help cover tuition costs.
10. Winners are required to write a timely thank you letter to the scholarship sponsor. The South Carolina Jr. Beef Round-Up Coordinator must be notified when a thank you letter has been sent.
11. Monies not used by your 22nd birthday will be forfeited.
12. Relatives of Clemson University employees are not eligible for the Coca-Cola & T. Ed Garrison Arena scholarship.
13. You MUST be present at the awards ceremony on Saturday evening. If the first recipient is not present, the next eligible present recipient will be awarded the scholarship.
Sales Talk Contest

Coordinators: Sam Quinney & Sarah and Gary Burns

The Sales Talk contest evaluates an individual’s ability to effectively present and market their animal to prospective buyers. This is done using a mock sales situation complete with a live animal and potential buyers. Contestants are judged on knowledge of their animal, ability to understand what the potential buyers are looking for, and overall effectiveness in convincing the judges to buy the animal.

Rules:
1. Decisions of the Sales Talk Coordinator are final.
2. Junior, Intermediate, and Senior Age Divisions available.
   a. Junior Division - 2 to 5 minute presentation
   b. Intermediate Division - 5 to 10 minute presentation
   c. Senior Division - 5 to 10 minute presentation
3. A warning will be given when one minute is remaining in the presentation time.
4. Participants shall make their presentation to a panel of 2 judges who can ask questions at the end of the talk.
5. You must use your calf – not a picture – during the talk. Another exhibitor must hold your calf while the talk is being given.
6. Prohibited items include extra promotional items (farm signs, posters, etc.), and props and incentive gifts to the judging panel (key rings, caps, etc.).
7. Presentations should include but are not limited to the following:
   a. Pedigree Information
   b. Performance Information
   c. Visual Characteristics
8. You must furnish the judges with a copy of your animal’s registration certificate or the sire and dam information for a commercial crossbred animal, as deemed appropriate.
9. Contestants will be graded on 4 categories:
   b. Presentation – originality, organization and ability to relate information about the animal to the judges.
   c. Poise & Delivery – articulation, composure, response to questions, gestures and eye contact.
   d. Overall Effectiveness – How convincing was the sales pitch? Were the judges actually sold on the animal?
10. Awards will be given to Champion and Reserve Champion in each division.
Jr. Cattlemen’s Contest

Coordinator: Brian Beer

The Jr. Cattlemen’s Contest is designed to test your knowledge of beef cattle production and management and the beef industry. Topics for the contest may include, but are not limited to, breed identification, animal evaluation & judging, meat cuts identification, general beef cattle knowledge, beef quality issues, equipment identification, weed identification, forages identification, feedstuff identification, and safety issues.

Suggested reference and study materials include beef publications, breed magazines, AI stud catalogs, 4-H beef project books, Extension publications, breed associations materials, beef management handbooks, beef management internet web sites, and Clemson Youth Livestock Program websites.

Rules:
1. All 4-H, FFA, junior breed association members and other junior beef producers are eligible to compete.
2. All South Carolina Jr. Beef Round-Up exhibitors must compete in the Jr. Cattlemen’s Contest. If you do not participate in the Jr. Cattlemen’s Contest, you are not eligible to participate in the Showmanship Contest or the Breed Shows.
3. Novice, Junior, Intermediate, Senior and Adult Age Divisions are available.
4. You MUST register for the contest by 9:30 am Saturday morning in the Main Arena.
5. Contestants will compete as individuals – no team activities.
6. Contestants do not have to exhibit cattle to participate.
7. The committee works hard to create a challenging and educational contest. The format of this contest may change in order to accommodate different sections or content.
8. Awards will be provided for high scoring individuals in each division. In case of ties, final ranking will be based on high score for Section 1. If still tied, final ranking will be based on high score for Section 2, etc.
9. Clipboards are not provided, so you may bring your own.
10. Pencils will be provided.
Showmanship Contest

Coordinator: Hillary Pope and Nicole Correa

Ring assignments will be posted at the Main Arena Show Office

1. All Jr. Beef Round-Up breed show exhibitors must compete in the Jr. Cattlemen’s Contest and Showmanship Contest. If you do not participate in the Jr. Cattlemen’s Contest, you are not eligible to participate in the Showmanship Contest or the Breed Shows.
2. This is an all-breed contest.
3. This contest is judged strictly on showmanship. Calves should be clean and dry and may be clipped.
4. Ownership of calves will be in accordance with the respective junior breed association requirements.
5. An exhibitor may not “borrow” another exhibitor’s calf for this contest.
6. Exhibitors must be able to control their calf. Unmanageable calves will be excused from the show ring or not allowed to enter the show ring.
7. Any animal getting loose from the exhibitor twice will be excused from the ring and not placed.
8. Exhibitors are to wear their South Carolina Jr. Beef Round-Up t-shirt during the contest.
9. Exhibitors are required to wear assigned numbers during the Showmanship Contest.
10. Novice, Junior, Intermediate and Senior Age Divisions are available.
11. Within Age Divisions, classes will be divided by exhibitors’ year of birth, however, the committee reserves the right to combine or subdivide classes as necessary to maintain a fair and safe ring environment. Exhibitors may be competing against older or younger competitors, but they will not compete outside of their age division.
12. 1st place class winners will come back to compete for their respective Division Champions. The 2nd place will be held in reserve and 2nd place to the Division Champion will be eligible to compete for Reserve Division Champion.
Breed Shows

10:00 am Sunday – Main Arena

General Policies

- If a breed show representative determines your animal not eligible for a breed show your heifer is still eligible to show in the commercial show.

Exhibitor General Rules

1. All South Carolina Jr. Beef Round-Up exhibitors must compete in the Jr. Cattlemen’s Contest on Saturday. If you do not participate in the Jr. Cattlemen’s Contest, you are not eligible to participate in the Breed Shows.
2. Classes are provided only for weaned heifers and steers- NO bulls or cow/calf pairs.
3. Only youth exhibitors are permitted to show calves. If an exhibitor has more than one entry in a class, he/she must ask another junior exhibitor to assist. This exhibitor must be registered with the JBRU Show office.
