South Carolina 4-H Youth Development
4-H Ambassador Program Application – August 2019
August 10, 2019 (9:30AM-4PM)
Midlands Technical College, Columbia, SC

Name _________________________________ Region_______________________

Street_______________________________ City________________________ Zip________

Home Phone _____________ Cell Phone________________________ County____________________

Email________________________________________________________________ Age_______ Shirt Size (for polo) ______

Please indicate how many years of experience you have had in the following:

- 4-H Project Work_____
- County/Regional Presentation Contests_____
- State Congress_____
- Club Officer_____
- Junior Leader_____
- Senior Leader_____
- County/Regional Teen Council_____

2nd Year Ambassadors (only) please check one as your specialty area:

- [ ] Horse
- [ ] Livestock
- [ ] Healthy Lifestyles
- [ ] Natural Resources
- [ ] Science

Each Ambassador must commit to serving as a trainer at one or more of the following regional events:

- 4-H Senior Leadership Training
- 4-H Junior Leadership Training
- 4-H Officer Training
- 4-H Presentations / Speech Training

Training Assignments will be distributed at the Ambassador training (participants need to bring their calendar / schedule to the training to make these determinations). Ambassadors should leave the program knowing which events they will be trainers for, who they are co-training with, who the event coordinator is, and with all the materials needed for their training events.

I understand the responsibilities and expectations of the 4-H Ambassador. I agree to fulfill all responsibilities and expectations to the best of my ability.

Signature_________________________________________ Date__________________

County 4-H Agent Signature _________________________________ Date ______________

Please submit your application, resume, 4-H Membership form, and $40 registration fee (payable to Clemson University) to the State 4-H Office by Wednesday, July 31st. Late registrations will not be accepted.

- Payment made online at www.clemson.edu/4h/event_registration
- Forms emailed or mailed to address below.

State 4-H Office – Ambassador Program
2054 Barre Hall, Clemson, SC 29634
Fax 864-656-7595. e-mail Lfrager@clemson.edu

Clemson University Cooperative Extension Service offers its programs to people of all ages, regardless of race, color, gender, religion, national origin, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital or family status and is an equal opportunity employer.
Workshop 1 – Select one of these afternoon workshops to attend during session 1.

Developing True Leaders--
Engage in hands-on leadership activities and learn about leadership skills of youth today. Gain skills and techniques to develop the next generation of True Leaders in your community!

Making Technology Fun for Your Club--
Make Technology an integral part of your club’s activities with fun, easy-to-use activities that anyone can master!

Activities for Animal Projects--
Learn about statewide Livestock opportunities and get hands-on activities you can use in your club.

Workshops 2 – Select one of these afternoon workshops to attend during session 2.

From the Horse’s Mouth--
Learn about statewide Horse Program opportunities and get hands-on activities you can use in your club.

Embracing the Outdoors--
See how you can teach youth about nature virtually anywhere! Learn how you can develop the next generation of environmental stewards and receive hands-on activities you can use in your club.

Promoting Healthy Lifestyles--
Learn about fun and easy, hands-on activities you can use in your club to teach youth about food safety and nutrition, which are vital in today’s world.
South Carolina 4-H Youth Development
Ambassador Job Description

Objective:
Ambassadors will be trained to serve as the teen trainers for the 4-H leadership and communication programs. By actively applying their own leadership and communication skills, Ambassadors will develop valuable workforce preparation experiences while supporting the sustainability of 4-H.

Tasks:
1. To serve as trainers or co-trainers at two or more of the following events:
   - Regional 4-H Senior Leadership Trainings
   - Regional 4-H Junior Leadership Trainings
   - Regional 4-H Club Officer Trainings
   - Regional 4-H Presentation Trainings
   - Regional 4-H Youth-Adult Partnership Trainings

2. To provide additional training opportunities to counties or regions as requested by County Agents.

Responsibilities:
- Ambassadors will engage in learning activities which will better prepare them to teach others.
- Ambassadors will work with their co-trainer(s) to share teaching responsibilities at each event.
- Ambassadors will make sure that all needed training supplies are in the training kit, and that they know how to use each item or set of items.
- Ambassadors will conduct an evaluation of each training event they teach. A summary of the evaluation results will be sent to the State 4-H Office.

Expectations:
- Ambassadors will conduct themselves in a professional manner through their appearance, speech, attitude, and actions.
- Ambassadors will be positive role models in representing the 4-H program.
- Ambassadors will seek additional opportunities to provide 4-H training to clubs, counties, and regions.
- Ambassadors must a 4-H Senior or Collegiate/Alumni Member (age 14-25).

4-H is the youth development program of the Cooperative Extension Service, a nationwide partnership of federal, state and county governments, and the private sector. Clemson University Cooperative Extension Service offers its programs to people of all ages, regardless of race, color, gender, religion, national origin, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital or family status and is an equal opportunity employer.