Poultry Showmanship

Coming 2018!

4-H Showmanship focuses on the skill and knowledge of the youth showing the animal, not the quality of the animal being shown. The 4-H Poultry Showmanship Project will teach youth proper techniques and prepare them for local Showmanship competitions. No experience needed, you do need a Chicken. Workshops will be scheduled in the summer to prepare youth for the fall Fair.

Help us gauge local interest by emailing Jscales@Clemson.edu.

Guinea Pig/Cavy Showmanship

Coming 2018!

4-H Showmanship focuses on the skill and knowledge of the youth showing the animal, not the quality of the animal being shown. The 4-H Guinea Pig/Cavy Project will teach youth proper techniques and prepare them for local Showmanship competitions. No experience needed, you do need a Guinea Pig. Workshops will be scheduled in the summer to prepare youth for the fall Fair.

Help us gauge local interest by emailing Jscales@Clemson.edu.
Rabbit Showmanship

Coming 2018!

4-H Showmanship focuses on the skill and knowledge of the youth showing the animal, not the quality of the animal being shown. The 4-H Rabbit Showmanship Project will teach youth proper techniques and prepare them for local Showmanship competitions. No experience needed, you do need a Rabbit.

Workshops will be scheduled in the summer to prepare youth for the fall Fair.

Help us gauge local interest by emailing Jscales@Clemson.edu.

Cloverbud Pet Rock Showmanship

Coming 2018!

4-H Showmanship focuses on the skill and knowledge of the youth showing the animal, not the quality of the rock being shown. The 4-H Pet Rock Project will teach young 4-H members proper techniques and prepare them for local Showmanship presentations. No experience needed, you do need a Pet Rock.

Workshops will be scheduled in the summer to prepare youth for the fall Fair. *This is non-competitive.

Help us gauge local interest by emailing Jscales@Clemson.edu.