Who Regulates My Food Products?

How will the food be sold?

Retail

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Question</th>
<th>Contact Information</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Will the food be prepared and served onsite to the customer?           | Contact the SC Department of Health and Environmental Control Food Safety Division:
  Website        |
|                                                                         | *Depending on the product, The South Carolina Department of Agriculture or the South
  Carolina Meat and Poultry Inspection Department may be involved in the product’s regulations.                                                               |
| Will you prepare and sell food directly to the end user in a retail setting (including farmer’s markets)? | Contact the SC Department of Health and Environmental Control Food Safety Division:
  Website          |

Wholesale

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Question</th>
<th>Contact Information</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Does your product contain more than 3% raw or 2% cooked beef, pork, chicken or lamb? | Contact the South Carolina Meat and Poultry Inspection Department:
  Website                     |
|                                                                         | Is your product cheese, grade A dairy, a soft drink or water product?               | No                                                                                     |
|                                                                         | Contact the South Carolina Department of Agriculture:
  Website                                   |
|                                                                         | Is your product seafood?                                                           | No                                                                                     |
|                                                                         | Contact the South Carolina Department of Agriculture:
  Website                                   |
|                                                                         | Does your product contain 7% or more alcohol?                                       | No                                                                                     |
|                                                                         | Contact the Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms Tax and Trade Bureau:
  Website                                           |
|                                                                         | Contact the South Carolina Department of Agriculture:
  Website                                   |