Report of Independent Auditor

The Board of Directors Clemson University Foundation Clemson, South Carolina

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Clemson University Foundation (the "Foundation"), which comprise the statements of financial position as of June 30, 2013 and 2012, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinions.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Foundation as of June 30, 2013 and 2012, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Report on Summarized Comparative Information

We have previously audited the Foundation's 2011 financial statements, and we expressed an unmodified audit opinion on those audited financial statements dated September 27, 2011. In our opinion, the summarized comparative information presented on the Statement of Activities, year ended June 30, 2012, as of and for the year ended June 30, 2011 is consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements from which it has been derived.

(A Component Unit of Clemson University) NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

JUNE 30, 2013 AND 2012

Note 1—Organization

The Clemson University Foundation (the "Foundation"), a component unit of Clemson University (the "University") as defined by the provisions of Governmental Accounting Standards Board ("GASB") Statement No. 14, The Financial Reporting Entity, is an independent, nonprofit, tax-exempt public charity incorporated in South Carolina. The Foundation exists solely to raise, receive, and manage private gifts for the advancement and benefit of the University. The Foundation is considered a component unit of the University, and is discretely presented in the University's financial statements, because the nature and significance of its relationship with the University is such that exclusion from the reporting entity would render the financial statements incomplete.

The Foundation is governed by an independent, 43 member volunteer board of directors, with additional honorary and ex-officio directors, as approved.

Note 2—Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of Accounting - The financial statements of the Foundation have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Basis of Presentation - The Foundation's net assets and revenues, expenses, gains and losses are classified based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Accordingly, net assets of the Foundation and changes therein are classified and reported as follows:

Unrestricted net assets – net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations. This includes funds that are designated for discretionary use by the Foundation and board designated funds functioning as endowments.

Temporarily restricted net assets – net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met either by actions of the Foundation and/or the passage of time. This includes annuity and life income funds, term endowments, the present value of contributions receivable, and earnings on investments.

Permanently restricted net assets – net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that they be maintained permanently by the Foundation. This includes the historical dollar amounts of gifts, the present value of contributions receivable, and earnings required to be added to the corpus as stipulated by the donor.

Revenues are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets unless use of the related assets is limited by donor-imposed restrictions. Expenses are reported as decreases in unrestricted net assets. Gains and losses on investments and other assets or liabilities are reported as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets unless their use is restricted by explicit donor stipulation or by law. Expirations of temporary restrictions on net assets (i.e. the donor-stipulated purpose has been fulfilled and/or the stipulated time period has elapsed) are reported as reclassifications between the applicable classes of net assets.

Contributions, including unconditional promises to give, are recognized as revenues in the period received. Conditional promises to give are not recognized until they become unconditional, that is, when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met. Contributions of assets other than cash are recorded at their estimated fair value. Contributions to be received after one year are discounted at an appropriate discount rate commensurate with the risks involved. Amortization of discounts is recorded as additional contribution revenue in accordance with donor-imposed restrictions, if any, on the contributions.

Note 2—Summary of significant accounting policies (continued)

Income and realized and unrealized net gains or losses on investments are reported as follows:

As increases or decreases in permanently restricted net assets if the terms of the gift require that they be added to the principal of a permanent endowment fund;

As increases or decreases in temporarily restricted net assets if the terms of the gift impose restrictions on the use of the income or by law;

As increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets in all other cases.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - The Foundation considers all interest bearing money market accounts and shortterm investments with an initial maturity of three months or less at the date of purchase to be cash equivalents. The Foundation places its cash and cash equivalents on deposit with financial institutions in the United States. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation covers $250,000 for substantially all depository accounts.

In November 2012, the Foundation implemented an earnings squared product. As a result, no cash balances are now collateralized. As of June 30, 2012, the Foundation had a $14,416,961 bank balance which was collateralized with U.S. Government or U.S. Government Agency securities placed with the Federal Reserve. These securities were held in the name of the financial institution but assigned to the Foundation. Balances held in money market accounts were not insured. During the year ended June 30, 2013 and 2012, the Foundation had $41,909,340 and $15,231,995, respectively, on deposit in excess of the insured limits and collateralized amounts. The Foundation has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

Investments - Investment securities are generally recorded at fair value. In the case of certain less marketable investments, principally private equity and real estate investments, value is established based on either external events which substantiate a change in value or a reasonable methodology that exists to capture and quantify changes in value. In some instances those changes in value may require use of estimates. Accordingly, such values may differ from the values that would have been used had a ready market for the investments existed.

Investment income, net of external and internal management expenses and fees, and gains and losses arising from the sale or other disposition of investments and other noncash assets is distributed to the various endowments using a pooled income approach. This approach distributes income following the market value unit method, which is based on the number of units each endowment owns in the managed investment pool.

Endowment and board-designated funds are invested on the basis of a total return policy to provide income and to realize appreciation in investment values. Under this policy, earnings, not to exceed a specified percentage, could be used to support the intended purposes. An appropriation from the endowment for expenditures that support the intended purpose may be made to the extent it is deemed prudent, unless otherwise restricted by the donor in the gift instrument.

The Foundation's investments include various types of investment securities and investment vehicles. Investment securities are exposed to several risks, such as interest rate, currency, market and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that change in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the Foundation's financial statements.

(A Component Unit of Clemson University) NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Land, Buildings and Equipment - Land, buildings and equipment are stated at cost at the date of acquisition. Cost for donated assets is stated at the appraised fair value on the date of donation. Equipment with a value in excess of $5,000 and a useful life in excess of one year is capitalized and depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets, ranging from five to seven years. Buildings are depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets, ranging from five to seven years. Buildings are depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets ranging from 15 to 20 years. Automobiles with the useful life of longer than one year are capitalized and depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives, ranging from three to seven years.

Land Held for Resale - Land held for resale is recorded at the lower of cost or fair value. Donated land is recorded at fair value at the date of the donation and is appraised by a certified, independent appraiser. A certified title examination is performed and if appropriate, an environmental survey is obtained. Land held for resale is reviewed every two to three years and reappraised as deemed necessary.

Split-Interest Agreements - The Foundation's split-interest agreements with donors consist primarily of irrevocable charitable remainder trusts and charitable gift annuities for which the Foundation serves as trustee and charitable remainder trusts administered by others. Assets held in these trusts whereby the Foundation serves as trustee are included in investments. Contribution revenues are recognized at the dates the trusts are established, after recording liabilities for the present value of the estimated future payments to be made to donors or other beneficiaries. The liabilities are adjusted annually for changes in the value of the assets, accretion of the discount, and other changes related to estimated future donor-related payments.

Trust assets administered by others are recorded at fair value as contributions receivable and are adjusted annually for changes in market value.

Income Taxes - The Foundation is recognized as an organization exempt from Federal income tax on related income under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") and described as an organization in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. Accordingly, only unrelated business income, as defined by Section 513 of the Code, is subject to Federal income tax.

The Foundation's policy is to record a liability for any tax position taken that is beneficial to the Foundation, including any related interest and penalties, when it is more likely than not the position taken by management with respect to a transaction or class of transactions will be overturned by a taxing authority upon examination. Management believes that there are no such positions as of June 30, 2013 and, accordingly, no liability has been accrued. The open tax years for the Foundation include the years ended June 30, 2010, 2011 and 2012.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments - The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, other receivables, due to/from related organizations, and accounts payable and accruals approximate fair value because of the terms and relative short maturity of financial instruments. The carrying values, which are the fair value of investments, are based on values provided by an external investment manager or comparison to quoted market values. The liabilities for notes payable are related to investments and investments held in trust for affiliate and, accordingly, are reported at fair value. Contributions receivable and actuarial liability of annuities payable are reported at the discounted present value, which approximates fair value.

Concentrations of Credit Risk - Financial instruments which potentially subject the Foundation to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of investments. The exposure to concentrations of credit risk relative to investments is limited due to the Foundation's investment objectives and policies, as adopted by its board of directors. The investment policies prohibit the acquisition of certain securities and require, among other things, that securities be diversified and meet investment grade quality criteria.

(A Component Unit of Clemson University) NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Use of Estimates - The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management of the Foundation to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. Estimates also affect the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Comparative Information - The financial statements include certain prior year summarized comparative information in total but not by net asset class. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with Accounting Principles Generally Accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the Foundation's financial statements for the year ended June 30, 2011, from which the summarized information was derived.

Note 3—Fair value measurements

Fair value, as defined under Accounting Principles Generally Accepted in the United States of America, is an exit price, representing the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Foundation utilizes market data or assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. The Foundation has characterized its financial assets and liabilities which are measured at fair value and recorded in the statements of financial position, based on a three-level fair value hierarchy based on the inputs to valuation techniques as follows:

- Level 1 Valuations based on quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 Valuations based on quoted prices in markets that are not active or for which all significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly, for substantially the full term of the financial instrument.
- Level 3 Valuations based on unobservable inputs reflecting the Foundation's own assumptions, consistent with reasonably available assumptions made by other market participants. These valuations require significant judgment or estimation by the investment manager.

The following tables summarize the valuation of the Foundation's financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value as of June 30, 2013 and 2012, based on the level of input utilized to measure fair value:

All assets have been valued using a market approach, except for Level 3 assets. Level 3 assets are valued using multiple approaches. Fair value for assets in Level 3 are calculated using assumptions about discounted cash flow and other present value techniques. There were no changes in the valuation techniques during the current year.

For assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3) during the period, the following table provides a reconciliation of beginning and ending balances for the years ended June 30, 2013 and 2012:

For investments in entities that calculate net asset value ("NAV") or its equivalent whose fair value is not readily determinable, the following table provides additional information about the probability of investments being sold at amounts different from their NAV per share at June 30, 2013:

	Fair Value	Unfunded Commitments	Redemption Frequency	Redemption Notice Period
Private partnerships (1)			• •
Private equity	$ 18,995,325	$ 17,789,580	N/A	N/A

			Quarterly to
Long/short equity <sup>(3)</sup>	25,312,631	-	Biennially	45-90 days
Total	$ 115,738,828		-	-

(1) This category includes investments in private equity, buyout, real assets and venture capital funds. These funds invest primarily in domestic companies across a broad spectrum of industries. Fair value of the partnerships is determined by the Fund Manager using the NAV reported by the underlying partnerships. For real assets, fair value is estimated by the general partner based on an internal valuation of the underlying projects. Generally these funds cannot be redeemed; instead, the nature of the investments is that distributions will be received as the underlying investments of the fund are liquidated.

(2) This category includes investments in hedge funds that pursue multiple strategies to diversify risks and reduce volatility. The fair value of these Funds' investments is estimated by the Fund Managers using the NAV based on valuations received from underlying investment managers.

(3) This investment includes underlying investments in funds that take both long and short positions in domestic and international securities, primarily equity securities. Fair value is reported monthly at NAV based on valuations received from underlying investment managers.

Note 4—Investments (continued)

In 1999, changes in the South Carolina Code of Laws allowed the University's Board of Trustees to loan endowment funds to the Foundation for the purpose of maximizing the investment yield and increasing the available funds for scholarships and other programs. For the years 2013 and 2012, University endowment funds of $151,956,883 and $137,085,667, respectively, were loaned to the Foundation and are included in investments held for Clemson University in the Statements of Financial Position.

Note 5—Contributions receivable, net

Contributions receivable, net, are summarized as follows at June 30, 2013 and 2012:

Note 7—Endowment assets

The Foundation's endowment consists of approximately 1,620 individual funds established for a variety of purposes including both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the Board of Directors to function as endowments. Net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the Board of Directors to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

Interpretation of Relevant Law - The Board of Directors of the Foundation has interpreted the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act ("UPMIFA") enacted July 1, 2008 in the State of South Carolina as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Foundation classifies as permanently restricted net assets (a) the original value of the gifts donated to the permanent endowment (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulation of earnings required to be added to the permanent endowment as stipulated by the donor applicable donor gift instrument.

The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the Foundation in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by UPMIFA. In accordance with UPMIFA, the Foundation considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- 1. The duration and preservation of the fund.
- 2. The purposes of the Foundation and the donor-restricted endowment fund.
- 3. General economic conditions.
- 4. The possible effect of inflation and deflation.
- 5. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments.
- 6. Other resources of the Foundation.
- 7. The investment policies of the Foundation.

Endowment net assets consist of the following at June 30, 2013:

			Temporarily		Permanently

Note 7—Endowment assets (continued)

Funds with Deficiencies - From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or UPMIFA requires the Foundation to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. Deficiencies of this nature that are reported in unrestricted net assets were $88,502 as of June 30, 2013 and $763,823 as of June 30, 2012. These deficiencies resulted from unfavorable market fluctuations that occurred after the investment of permanently restricted contributions and, to a degree by continued appropriation for certain programs that was deemed prudent by the Board of Directors.

Return Objectives and Risk Parameters - The Foundation has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a relatively predictable, stable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the Foundation must hold in perpetuity or for a donor-specified period as well as board designated funds. As authorized by Board approved policies, these assets are invested to maximize long term returns, while simultaneously mitigating risk through maintaining a diversified portfolio. A multi-generational window not only allows for the typical diversification across asset classes, but also for time diversification across both up and down markets.

The assets are invested in a manner that is intended to produce results that meet or exceed the composite return and are within the risk parameters of a benchmark composed of 42% Russell 3000 Index, 28% MSCI All Country World Ex US Index, 5% Dow Jones UBS Commodity Total Return, 5% S&P Global Natural Resources Index, 5% FTSE EPRA NAREIT Global Real Estate Index, and 15% Barclays Capital Aggregate Bond Index. The long-term objective is to attain, within acceptable risk parameters, an average annual total return that exceeds the sum of the Foundation's approved payout rate plus inflation, plus investment management and related fees. The objective is expected to be obtained over time but not in each and every reporting period.

Strategies Employed for Achieving Objectives - To address its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Foundation relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The Foundation targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term objectives within prudent risk constraints.

Spending Policy and How the Investment Objectives Relate to Spending Policy - The Foundation spending policy appropriates for distribution each year a certain percentage of its endowment funds' average fair value for the prior three years through the fiscal year-end preceding the fiscal year in which the distribution is planned. In establishing this policy, the Foundation considered the expected return on its endowment. The goal of such spending policy is to allow the endowment to maintain its purchasing power, achieve a reasonable degree of stability and predictability in income availability for operations and to achieve a balance between present and future needs. Real growth is achieved through new gifts and any excess investment return.

Note 8—Leases

The Foundation has entered into operating lease agreements for vehicles and office space that expire over the next three years. Total rent expense incurred under these agreements was $128,031 and $116,238 for the years ended June 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively. Future minimum lease payments under the operating lease agreements are $123,087 in 2014, $30,364 in 2015, and $7,067 in 2016.

Note 9—Related-party transactions

At June 30, 2013 and 2012, amounts due to and due from organizations related to the Foundation through their affiliation with the University are as follows:

	_	2013	 2012
Due to: IPTAY Clemson Architectural Foundation Clemson University	$	431 540 104,032	$ 470 2,882 -
	$	105,003	$ 3,352

	$	1,371,985	$ 2,097,458

The Foundation purchased and transferred equipment with a net book value of $134,403 and $105,324 during 2013 and 2012, respectively, to the University.

Individuals working on behalf of the Foundation are employees of and paid by the University. The Foundation reimburses the University for the time University employees spend on Foundation matters. Funds are reimbursed to the University as part of the annual board allocation to the University and are recorded as expenses by the Foundation. The amounts reimbursed for the years ended June 30, 2013 and 2012 were $489,432 and $448,552, respectively.

In 1999, the Foundation approved a noninterest bearing loan of $600,000 to the Clemson University Continuing Education and Conference Complex Corporation (the "Complex Corporation") for landscaping, drainage, and irrigation improvements to the Walker Golf Course. In 2000, the Foundation approved an additional $300,000 noninterest bearing loan for enhancements to the entrance and parking of the Complex Corporation. The balance outstanding at June 30, 2013 and 2012 was $15,000 and $620,000, respectively. The loans are not due until the Complex Corporation's outstanding bank debt is paid in full.

The University and the Foundation have a memorandum of understanding whereby the University loans certain endowment funds to the Foundation for the purpose of maximizing the investment yield and increasing the funds available for scholarships and other University programs. These funds are managed with an asset allocation similar to that of the Foundation. The agreement is for a period of ten years and will be reviewed annually and automatically extended each year for an additional twelve month period unless either party provides written notice of objection. Either party may terminate the agreement with 180 days notice. The current agreement expires July 11, 2022. The principal balance outstanding at June 30, 2013 and 2012 was $102,919,316 and the accrued liability to the University due to net investment appreciation on the principal outstanding was $49,037,567 and $34,166,351, respectively. The Foundation charged an annual fee of 1.25% in 2013 and 2012 for managing the University's endowments. The fee is assessed quarterly and $348,385 and $402,158 was due to the Foundation at June 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively.

Note 9—Related-party transactions (continued)

Funds loaned to the Foundation will be paid back to the University with interest at a rate equal to the total cumulative return (consisting of appreciation and income less any payouts to the University) earned from the investment of such funds by the Foundation. The University is prohibited from requesting a return of the loaned funds if the total cumulative return is negative.

In December 2007, the Foundation approved a non-interest bearing loan of $20,000,000 to the Clemson University Real Estate Foundation ("CUREF") for investment in land acquisitions and improvements at Clemson University-International Center for Automotive Research. The Foundation note is unsecured and is subordinate to CUREF notes payable to TD Bank. The loan is not due until the CUREF outstanding bank debt is paid in full. This loan was assigned to the Clemson University Land Stewardship Foundation ("CULSF") in December 2012 with the transfer of the underlying asset.

Note 10—Royalty revenue

In September 1999, the Foundation, on behalf of the Clemson Alumni Association, entered into an agreement with MBNA America Bank to provide an affinity credit card to Clemson alumni, students and friends. The agreement was amended and restated for an additional seven year period and expired in June 2012. The agreement was again amended and restated for an additional five year period expiring in September 2017. Under the terms of the agreement, MBNA America paid $650,000 in June 2011 to the Foundation as an advance against royalties to be earned during the contract. A portion of the funds received each year are payable immediately to the University athletic department. Accordingly, these amounts are not recognized as revenue on the Foundation's statements of activities. Royalty revenue is being recognized as earned during the period of the contract. A total of $421,598 and $404,364 of royalty revenue was recognized during each of the years ended June 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively, and is included in program income.

Note 11—Split-interest agreements

The Foundation has entered into charitable remainder annuity and unitrust agreements whereby assets are made available on the condition that income is paid periodically to designated individuals. Payments of such amounts terminate at a time specified in the agreements. Included in investments at June 30, 2013 and 2012, is $13,059,367 and $11,532,978, respectively, of assets held under the agreements and are comprised of U.S. Government obligations, corporate bonds, and U.S. and global equities.

The Foundation has reported in the accompanying statements of financial position an actuarial liability of $4,508,181 and $4,163,403 at June 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively, which represents the present value of estimated future payments to beneficiaries of the charitable remainder annuity trusts and unitrusts, taking into consideration their life expectancy and discounted at applicable interest rates.

The Foundation has entered into charitable gift annuity agreements whereby donors contribute assets in exchange for the Foundation's promise to pay a fixed amount to a designated individual for a specified period of time. The assets contributed are held as general assets of the Foundation and an actuarial liability which represents the present value of estimated future payments to beneficiaries of charitable gift annuities of $902,930 and $847,980 at June 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively, has been reported in the accompanying statements of financial position.

Note 12—Life insurance policies

The Foundation is owner and beneficiary of various life insurance policies on 28 individuals with an aggregate face value of $4,159,752 for the years ended June 30, 2013 and 2012. The cash surrender value at June 30, 2013 and 2012 was $1,722,884 and $1,642,002, respectively.

Note 13—Investments held in trust for affiliate

The Foundation holds and invests assets belonging to the Clemson Architectural Foundation ("CAF") in a custodial capacity. The funds are invested in an externally managed investment pool by joint agreement with CAF management. The total of the funds under management at June 30, 2013 and 2012 was $2,445,495 and $2,324,469, respectively.

Note 14—Commitments

The Foundation has committed $1,648,288 and $1,823,150 at June 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively, for building projects for the benefit of the University. At June 30, 2013 the Foundation has received cash from donors that covers this commitment.

The Foundation guaranteed a loan of $2.2 million with a financial institution for the construction of the Complex Corporation golf course and hotel. The loan was secured by certain assets and revenues of the Complex Corporation. This note was paid off during fiscal year 2013.

Pursuant to the terms of an agreement dated September 9, 1993, the Foundation shall pay on an annual basis any short-fall occurring in the event that the "Golf Course Premises Revenues" of the Complex Corporation are not sufficient to pay the "Operating Expenses (excluding any debt service) and ground lease base rent and Reserves"; provided, however, the Complex Corporation shall first pay such short-fall out of the "Reserves". No such payments were required in 2013 or 2012.

The Foundation entered into a memorandum of understanding with the University whereby it agrees to make any debt service payments due and not made by CULSF or LICAR, LLC for the Center for Emerging Technologies building. In exchange for any debt service payments made, the Foundation may reduce its annual allocation to the University by a like amount. No such payments were required in 2013 or 2012. This memorandum was transferred to CULSF as part of the CET Building transfer in December 2012.
