ETD Checklist — Before Submitting Your Manuscript

This is for your reference use only; don’t turn it in with your manuscript. By ensuring that your manuscript conforms to the items below, you’ll greatly increase the odds that your submission will require only one review.

If you would like more detailed information on manuscript formatting, please refer to the formatting instructions in Your Clemson University Thesis or Dissertation: Guidelines, Tips & Tools. Brief formatting info appears at https://www.clemson.edu/graduate/students/theses-and-dissertations/format.html

General

☐ All pages are U.S. Letter Standard size (8.5” x 11”), and all page margins are set to 1.25 inches.

☐ My committee-signed approval form (GS7) is NOT included in the front matter or body of my paper.

☐ My title page is formatted to match the Sample Title Page at http://www.clemson.edu/graduate/students/theses-and-dissertations/manuscript-files/example_front-3.pdf.

☐ All page margins are set to 1.25 inches.

☐ My title is in all caps (standard scientific nomenclature is observed for the names of organisms).

☐ My name and my committee members’ names are spelled correctly.

☐ The month and year on the page are the same as the month and year of my graduation (even if I’m not attending the ceremony).

☐ The words “of,” “the” and “by” are lowercase (except where they appear in the title).

☐ Each section of text is single-spaced, with a double space separated by a horizontal rule between sections.

☐ The spacing between each block of text and around the horizontal section-divider rules is consistent.

Abstract (Required)

☐ All margins are set to 1.25 inches.

☐ The heading “Abstract” is formatted to stand out in some way. Whatever formatting I chose, I used the same formatting for all first-level headings (section or chapter titles).

☐ The text is double-spaced.

Dedication/Acknowledgments (Optional)

☐ All margins are set to 1.25 inches.

☐ There is a lowercase Roman numeral page number (i, ii, iii, iv, etc.) centered at the bottom of each page.

☐ I formatted the heading(s) “Dedication” and/or “Acknowledgments” the same way as my “Abstract” heading.

☐ The text is double-spaced.

☐ I did not include extravagant praise, insincere thanks, or references to animals or inanimate objects.
Table of Contents (Required. Many common formatting problems are errors in content pages)

☐ All margins are set to 1.25 inches.

☐ There is a lowercase Roman numeral page number (i, ii, iii, iv, etc.) centered at the bottom of each page.

☐ I formatted the heading “Table of Contents” the same way as my “Abstract” heading.

☐ The heading “Page” (no quotation marks in the actual heading) is centered over the column of page numbers, and I double spaced after it.

☐ I used properly made ellipses (leader dots) between each entry title and the corresponding page number — I consulted the Ellipses Instructions at http://www.clemson.edu/graduate/students/theses-and-dissertations/manuscript-files/Ellipses%20Instructions_final.pdf.

☐ All entries have page numbers.

☐ I double-checked my page numbers in contents entries against the manuscript after I completed all text editing.

☐ The alignment and spacing of entries is consistent within the Table of Contents and consistent with all lists in the manuscript.

☐ All main headings (section/chapter titles and first-level subheadings) are included in my Table of Contents.

☐ I did not list “Table of Contents” within my Table of Contents.

☐ Highly recommended: If Table of Contents runs longer than one page, I’ve added the heading “Table of Contents (Continued)” at the top left of each subsequent page, and repeated the “Page” column head over the column of page numbers (note: this is not applicable if you are using a LaTeX template).

Lists of Tables/Figures/Maps/Nomenclature, etc.

☐ All margins are set to 1.25 inches.

☐ There is a lowercase Roman numeral page number (i, ii, iii, iv, etc.) centered at the bottom of each page.

☐ I formatted the heading “List of Tables” (etc.) the same way as my “Abstract” heading.

☐ The heading “Table,” “Figure,” “Map,” etc. is flush against the left-hand margin, aligned vertically with the entry numbers (1.1, 1.2, 1.3...). On the same line, the heading, “Page” is centered above the column of page number. I double spaced after it.

☐ I used ellipses (leader dots) between each entry title and the corresponding page number.

☐ All entries have page numbers.

☐ The alignment and spacing of entries is consistent with the Table of Contents and all lists in the manuscript.

☐ All tables, figures, maps, etc. are included on the appropriate list.
Body Text
☐ All margins are set to 1.25 inches.
☐ The first page of the first chapter begins on Arabic-numbered page 1, and all pages have visible page numbers.
☐ The text is double spaced.
☐ I was consistent in labeling my tables, figures, maps and mathematical equations.
☐ Whenever I had to change the orientation of a page from portrait to landscape, I kept the page number in the same place as all other pages.
☐ If I have a figure or table on a page, I have at least four lines of text on the page or none at all.
☐ All content (including tables, figures, maps, etc.) fits within the page margins.

Appendix or Appendices
☐ All margins are set to 1.25 inches.
☐ I included page numbers on these pages that continue from the body text of my manuscript.
☐ I named my appendices and included them in the Table of Contents.
☐ If I have more than one appendix, I included a divider page with the word “Appendices” centered on it (in the same text style as my main headings) and a page number. This page also appears as an entry in the Table of Contents.
☐ I consistently labeled each appendix.

Bibliography, Literature/Works Cited, References
☐ All margins are set to 1.25 inches.
☐ I formatted all heading(s) the same way as my “Abstract” heading.
☐ I single-spaced within entries and double-spaced between entries (preferred but not required – I may follow my program’s writing style guidelines, as noted in last item below, instead).
☐ I did not split any of my entries between pages.
☐ All website and email addresses (URLs/hyperlinks) are colored black without underlines.
☐ I consistently followed a discipline-approved format (MLA, APA, Chicago Style, etc.) if my committee recommended one.
