

Expired Reimbursements

For Student's that have Expired Reimbursements:

If you received a payment notification regarding your reimbursement and you failed to enroll your Clemson University email address as directed, the payment will expire after 14 days and the funds will be returned to the University. Over the course of those 14 days, 3 separate emails from Bank of America and 1 email from the University will be sent as a reminder that you have not completed your enrollment.

To have your reimbursement resent, you will need to enroll your Clemson email account with Zelle (TigerPay) and then send an email to disbursements@clemson.edu with the subject line "Study Abroad TigerPay" indicating you have completed these steps and now requesting the University to reinitiate your reimbursement.
