

RALPH D. ELLIOT ENDOWED AWARD FOR OUTSTANDING SERVICE TO OFF-CAMPUS, DISTANCE AND CONTINUING EDUCATION

NOMINATION FORM

The Ralph D. Elliott Award was established in 2006 by family and friends of Dr. Elliott in honor of his retirement as Vice Provost for Off-Campus, Distance and Continuing Education & Professor of Economics.

The purpose of the award is to recognize and honor a Clemson University faculty, staff or administrator who has promoted initiatives in the field of credit or noncredit continuing education in a worthy and exemplary manner.

The recipient of this award will be selected according to the following criteria:

- 1) Served as an excellent teacher or mentor;
- 2) Developed and/or coordinated model continuing education programs, off campus or distance education programs;
- 3) Facilitated new programming areas through continuing education, off campus or distance education;
- 4) Opened new avenues for the advancement of education, off campus or distance education organizations at the state, regional or national level.

Nominations should be organized under the areas denoted above, addressing activities in each area that applies to the candidate.
