

University New Faculty Orientation 2026

Date: August 17, 2026 – 1:00 PM to 4:30 PM

Location: Phyfer Auditorium, Wilbur O. and Ann Powers College of Business

Welcome to Clemson University!

Goals:

Faculty new to Clemson University and new to faculty appointments will become familiar with many facets of the university including units, offices, and leaders that are dedicated to their success. Participants will hear from several leaders across the university and engage in dialog through formal and informal activities and presentations. All participants will be enrolled in a Teams Channel that contains all presented materials and additional files related to the Orientation program. Every participant will have the opportunity to meet other faculty members, administrators, or campus community members during and after orientation.

As you embark on your new role at Clemson, we hope today allows you to feel more connected to the University and the larger Clemson community.

Microsoft Teams Faculty Orientation Page:

Orientation materials and other onboarding resource guides are available in a Microsoft Team called 'Clemson University Faculty Orientation'. You will receive a notification email that you have been added; if you have not received this email, please contact facultyaffairsevents@clemson.edu. We can also grant access during orientation.

Orange boutonnières:

Your colleagues from the Provost's Office are wearing boutonnières that look like this. Please don't hesitate to stop one of us and chat about the agenda or faculty affairs at Clemson University. We are here for you!

Small quiet spaces available for calls, smaller side conversations, etc.:

Rooms G018, G020, and G022 are reserved as a small quiet place available all afternoon for faculty in need of a small quiet place. If occupied, don't hesitate to ask for assistance in locating another potential space.
