LOWER WILDCAT CRK

FEATURED ROUTE

DISTANCE: 1.6 miles  HIKING TIME: 0:45  DIFFICULTY: easy/mod

IDEAL FOR: Pets, hikers, trail runners and cyclists.

PERKS: Small, quaint Wildcat Creek waterfall is an easy hike, less than a mile from the parking area.

PRECAUTIONS: You will have to get wet! There are 2 unavoidable, significant water crossings on this route. Cyclists will need to carry their bike across the water crossing on Bowman Road but can ride through the crossing on Six Mile Creek Logging Road.

![WATER CROSSING]

- Muddy, slippery entry & exit; strong current; large, slippery rocks underwater; water depth is ~2.5 feet.

- Calm current; sure footing on sandy/pebble bottom; smooth/sandy entrance & exit; water depth is ~1.5 feet. Mountain bikers should be able to ride across this creek.

Trail names are designated and managed by an external partner and are subject to change without notice.

clemson.edu/cef
clemsonforest

CLEMSON EXPERIMENTAL FOREST