If you can’t find winter-interest plants at the Garden, you must be walking with your eyes and ears closed! From the bright colors of winter berries to the soft rustling of dried grasses and beech leaves, the Garden teems with plants that support life through winter.

Tripsacum dactyloides | eastern gamagrass

Ilex verticillata | winterberry holly

Morella cerifera | wax myrtle

Aronia arbutifolia | red chokecherry

Prunus caroliniana | Carolina cherry laurel