

Funded Grant Repository User Instructions

The Funded Grant Repository has been assembled to provide Clemson University researchers with a diverse collection of examples of successfully-funded proposals for informational and learning purposes only.

- Click the following link to access the Funded Grant Repository:
<https://grantrepo.app.clemson.edu/repository/index.php>
- Log-in using your Clemson credentials (userid and password). The introductory page contains the Acknowledgements and the Terms and Conditions of Use. You will be required to enter your XID (found on your TigerOne card) as acknowledgement and agreement to the terms.

- Upon your first visit to the Funded Grant Repository, an administrator will be notified. You will receive an authorization email to notify you that access has been granted. You can then return to the Funded Grant Repository and enter your credentials to access the grants.
- Click “Repository” in the top left corner to get a list of grants. You can “Search” the list by agency, division (i.e. chemistry, MCB) or grant type (i.e. P20, R21, etc.). You do have to click the magnifying glass to launch the search.
- Click the “Grant File” name which is in blue to open the proposal.

Important Reminder of the Terms and Conditions Agreement:

- Do NOT republish material from the database (including republication on another website);
- Do NOT sell, rent or sub-license material from the database;
- Do NOT display, present or share any material from the database with the public;
- Do NOT reproduce, duplicate, copy or otherwise exploit material from the database for any purpose, commercial or otherwise;

Funded Grant Repository User Instructions

- Do NOT edit or otherwise modify any material from the database; and
- Do NOT redistribute material from the database.