Call for Applications - TeachingForward Fellows

Academic Year 2020-2021

The Division of Undergraduate Studies, Office of Teaching Effectiveness and Innovation (OTEI), and the Clemson Thinks² (CT²) Program announce a call for applications for TeachingForward Fellows for the 2020-2021 academic year.

We anticipate having four Fellows to provide leadership to faculty colleagues in professional teaching development, meeting ClemsonForward goals. Fellows will support the aims of ClemsonForward through one of the following:

- Project 1: Facilitating faculty infusion of the career Core Competencies into courses and curricula.
- Project 2: Supporting CU Engage, to lead faculty conversation and initiatives around service-learning, international virtual exchange, undergraduate research embedded in courses, Global Challenges courses, and/or capstone courses. (1 to 2 faculty may be invited to work on this project.)
- Project 3: Helping faculty build capacity with teaching students today, particularly with an eye to student capacity and mental health, engagement, team learning, and/or generational issues.

Each Fellow will work closely with OTEI/Undergraduate Studies/CT² to develop a portfolio of opportunities to improve professional teaching development around one of the project areas above. Compensation is expected to be $6,000, receivable as professional development, course buy-out, or summer salary, determined with the Fellow’s Department Chair.

Eligibility:
- Clemson Faculty (tenured or tenure-track), Lecturer (all levels), visiting Faculty
- At least three years of teaching experience at Clemson
- Approval of Department Chair or Dean
- Demonstrated leadership with curriculum design or development (preferred)
- Demonstrated excellence in u’grad teaching and/or issues related to u’grad education (preferred)

Appointment duration: August 1, 2020 to June 30, 2021

Application Requirements & Submission:
1. Please provide a statement of interest, limited to 3 pages. Indicate the project area from above that you wish to address. In the letter, it would be helpful to address your experience and leadership in any of the following:
   - Professional development (on-campus events such as CT² Faculty Institute, Clemson Faculty Learning Community and conferences, Global Learning Institute, etc. or off-campus events)
   - Leadership in teaching and learning (such as CT² Fellow, Global Learning Fellow, Service-Learning Fellow, Faculty Learning Community leader, CU Engage committee member)
   - Presentations at teaching conference or events
   - Collaborative curriculum development and assessment. Collaborative course design and/or assignment design
   - Experience with integrating University initiatives (critical thinking, global learning, diversity & inclusion) into curriculum
2. CV
3. Email of support (short is fine) from Department Chair or Dean
4. Submit the application as a single pdf to Trogden@Clemson.edu by May 31, 2020

We welcome your questions: Bridget Trogden (Trogden@Clemson.edu) or Taimi Olsen (TaimiO@Clemson.edu).
