2018-19 Bachelor of Arts in SPECIAL EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts:

The Bachelor of Arts degree in Special Education prepares students to teach individuals with mild disabilities in grades P–12. The curriculum is designed to meet the competencies outlined by the Council for Exceptional Children for beginning special education teachers. Students completing the program receive instruction and practical experiences that lead to Multi-Categorical Special Education Licensure in South Carolina. Once admitted to the professional level, candidates must maintain a 2.75 GPA in order to advance through the professional level coursework sequence. To be recommended for certification, candidates must earn a C or higher in all education courses at the professional level and a B or higher in EDSP 4960 and EDSP 4980.

Catalog Description

Special Education majors seeking departmental honors complete honors research under the direction of Special Education faculty. Students take a minimum of 6 hours across at least 2 semesters. May be repeated for a maximum of 12 credits.

Required course for students in

Departmental
Honors in Special Education

Statement of need and justification based on assessment of student learning outcomes

According to guidance from Calhoun Honors College, students seeking departmental honors complete a major research project under the direction of a faculty member. This course will allow Special Education majors to achieve Departmental honors and gain advanced/in-depth knowledge of critical research in the field of Special Education

Textbook(s)

Readings will be assigned for the specific area of study within the field of special education.

Learning Objectives

One who successfully completes this course will: • Under the direction of a faculty mentor, review research related to evidence-based interventions and practices; collaborate with a faculty mentor and other professionals in the field to investigate, report, and disseminate information about the research topic.

Topical Outline

- Research in Special Education
- Evidence-based practices for Individuals with Disabilities
- Development and dissemination of research findings

Add course requirements for honors courses (if applicable)

Students are required to complete research activities across a sequence of at least 6 credit hours and 2 semesters; activities culminate in a major research project to be disseminated in an appropriate format and outlet.
